

Marshall-Carter Vows Exchanged in Evening Rites

Before a gathering of their immediate families Katherine A. Carter and Charles A. Marshall repeated their vows in an evening ceremony at the St. James Episcopal Church on July 31. The Rev. Harold E. Towne officiated at the double ring ceremony. The parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. George E. Carter of 711 Smith. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Marshall of Detroit. Dressed in a pink summer cotton and wearing white accessories, the bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore flowers in her hair. Maid-of-honor Maryann Nixon of Beverly Hills chose a pale green cotton dress and black accessories for the ceremony. Paul Dorrington of Detroit acted as best man. The young couple plan to spend their three week honeymoon at Loun Lake, Mich. Upon their return they will make their home in Birmingham.

Joyce Pomeroy is Wed to Allen Budd Hardenbrook

White flowers and green palms banked the altar of the Martha Mary Chapel in Dearborn for the marriage of Miss Joyce Pomeroy and Allen Budd Hardenbrook. The young couple exchanged their vows before the Rev. Arnold F. Runkel in a candlelight ceremony Saturday.

The bride, who has been making her home with her aunt, Mrs. Lawrence H. Pomeroy of Lakeside drive, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Pomeroy of London, England. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hardenbrook of Detroit.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Pomeroy wore a gown fashioned with a white lace bodice and a full net skirt over satin. The dress was styled with a sweetheart neckline and the long sleeves were cut in traditional points over her hands. Her Belgium lace full length veil was held by a mantilla effect crown and she carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Joan Pomeroy was her sister's maid of honor in a white tulle gown with a long sleeve effect and a draped skirt. She wore a horsehair halo hat and her flowers were American Beauty roses and white larkspur in an old fashioned bouquet. The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Lee Aldrich of Birmingham; Miss Sue Pomeroy, a cousin of the bride of Birmingham and Miss Mary Halpin of Grosse Pointe wore gowns and hats identical to the maid of honor's and carried old fashioned bouquets of yellow roses and blue larkspur.

A brother of the bridegroom, Richard Hardenbrook acted as best man and seating the guests were Jack Krewson of Ann Arbor; Donald Howick of Ann Arbor and Roger Harrison of Detroit. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pomeroy chose a royal blue lace full length gown with a matching hat trimmed with a pink tulle veil and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Hardenbrook wore a toast colored floor length gown with a matching hat and an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Dearborn Inn. For the first step of her wedding trip, the new Mrs. Hardenbrook selected a two piece blue silk shantung suit and completed her ensemble with brown and white accessories.

The couple will make their home in South Bend, Ind., upon their return.

Miss McCutcheon to Be September Bride of John W. Snyder

St. James Episcopal Church will be the scene of the marriage of Miss Carol Louise McCutcheon and John Wesley Snyder, III, on Sept. 11. The Rev. Harold E. Towne will officiate at the 4:30 o'clock ceremony. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bates McCutcheon of Lakeview and her fiancé's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Anderson of Pleasant Ridge.

Miss McCutcheon has asked her sister, Mrs. Paul H. Gleye to serve as her matron of honor and Miss Abbie Stoll and Miss Gerry Flynn, both of Birmingham, to be her bridesmaids.

Young Paul H. Gleye, III, and Martha Jane McCutcheon are to act as ring bearer and flower girl. Mr. Snyder will have Keith Blake as his best man and William E. Gerhard, Stephen Leonard and David L. Helm, Jr., as his ushers. The reception is to be held at the Community House, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will be the hosts at the rehearsal dinner on the Friday before the wedding.
