Marilyn Adams Completes Plans for Fall Wedding

The wedding plans of Miss Marilyn Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Adams of Kensington road have been completed. She will exchange vows with Robert Heckebeamp of Westfield, N. J., on Sept. 11 at noon in Holy Name Church. Rev. MacEachin of East Lansing will officiate at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Adams has asked Mrs. Jack O'Brien of South Bend, Ind., to be her matron of honor and Miss Doleen Booker of Muskegon Heights; Miss Ellen Adams and her sister, Mrs. Ellen Ann Adams to serve as her bridesmaids.

Louis Hiers, Jr., of Norfolk, Va., is to be best man and serving as ushers will be a brother of the bride, Charles Adams, Colin Campbell of Bronsville, N. Y., and William Heckebeamp, a brother of the bridegroom of Pennsylvania. The reception is to be held at the Bloomfield Country Club.

Evelyn Hambley Is
to Percy Werner

All white flowers framed the picture window and provided the background for the marriage ceremony of Miss Evelyn Genevieve Hambley and Percy "Pat" Werner.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an organy gown cut with long sleeves, a fitted bodice that was trimmed with tiny buttons down the front and a lace collar. The full, bouffant skirt was edged in lace and she wore flowers in her hair. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of white gladioli and larkspur.

Miss Eleanor Hambley served as her sister's maid of honor in an off-shouldered turquoise net gown with net ruffles trimming the full skirt. She also wore flowers in her hair and carried a bouquet of cream colored roses and carnations.

Marshall Erdman of Madison, Wis., was the best man and William A. Hambley, Jr., acted as the guests.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Hambley chose a flowered print gown with a pink flowered hat and a corsage of white and pink carnations.

Mrs. Werner wore a blue crepe dress with a matching hat and a pink and white carnation corsage.

A wedding breakfast for relatives and close friends was held later at the Kingsley Inn.

As the couple left for their wedding trip through Montreal, Quebec, Boston and New York state, the new Mrs. Werner was wearing a leaf green suit set off by a floral print scarf and white accessories. They will make their home in Madison, Wis., where Mr. Werner will be completing work on his master's degree and Mrs. Werner will be continuing her studies for her bachelor's degree.

Out of town guests for the event were Mrs. Anna Wall, an aunt of the bride from Quincy, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Erdman of Madison, Wis.; Dr. and Mrs. Allan Reith of Milwaukee, Wis.; Miss Mildred Nessel of Crandon, Wis.; Miss Eleanor Hambley of Copper Cliff, Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sexhauser of Grosse Pointe and Bill Pratt of Detroit.

"My Sister Eileen"
Will Open Aug. 10
at Will-O-Way

Will-O-Way Playhouse announces its next production, "My Sister Eileen" starring Peggy Van Vleet as Eileen and featuring the popular Detroit radio personality, Minnie Jo Curtis as Eileen's sister Tuesday evening, August 10, and plays every evening except Monday with matinees on Saturday.

Peggy Van Vleet in recreating her original role of Eileen will renew acquaintance with Bill Merrill, producer-director of Will-O-Way. When Bill was producing shows at Camp Astorbury in Indiana during the war, Miss Van Vleet lent her talent to his GI production of "My Sister Eileen".

Two resident members of Will-O-Way who were also in the same Army show are Harold W. Meiner, who is technical director and scenic designer and John Eseman who is stage manager and a resident actor. Meiner plays the role of The Wreck and Eseman takes the part of the Greek landlord responsible for many of the hilarious headaches of "My Sister Eileen".

"My sister Eileen" is a fast moving comedy about two sisters who move to Greenwich Village in New York and rent a run down house. They are trying to crash the big town. They somehow manage to have an overdose of problems ranging from the blasting of a subway beneath their studio to becoming involved with the entire Brazilian Navy.

Miss Nancy Quart Names Attendants

Miss Nancy Quart, daughter of Mr. L. A. Quart and the late Mrs. Quart, 440 Lake Park, has completed plans for her marriage to Harold Welch, Jr., on Aug. 21, at Holy Name Church. Mr. Welch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Welch of Surfside road.

The bride-elect has asked Miss Paula Basso to be her maid of honor and Mrs. Leon Darga, Miss Joan Danek, Miss Mary McGinnis and Miss Mary Ellen Welch, a sister of the bridegroom, are to serve as bridesmaids. Young Joy Talbot is to be the flower girl.

Best man will be John Stautt, Jr., of Grosse Pointe. John Danek, Len Quart, a brother of the bride, Robert Gray of Grosse Pointe and Dick Danek will seat the guests. Miss Quart is going to have her nephew, Leonard Kilby, act as ring bearer.

Numerous parties are being held in honor of the bride-to-be. Mrs. Welch was hostess at a luncheon at the Women's Club of Grosse Pointe and Miss Joan Danek gave a linen shower at her home for Miss Quart. Mrs. Robert Koom will entertain the bride-elect at a kitchen shower and Mr. Charles Barker and Mrs. Leon Darga will be hostesses at a miscellaneous shower in her honor.

The spinner dinner will be given by Miss Hasso and Miss McGinnis and Mr. Quart will be host at the rehearsal dinner the night before the wedding at Oakland Hills Country Club.

West Coast, East Coast: all around the Land!

LaBELLES bring you things for your home as well as personal gifts from both coasts and elsewhere in this country; even from other countries where design and craftsmanship are worthy!

All together, it represents a galaxy of gifts truly unusual for any shop to carry. And it likely is the best explanation as to why this shop has, over the years, earned its reputation for excellence in gifts.

For it is, after all, the search for the finer things in the marts of the nation... and then the careful choosing; more than that, the experienced choosing which, when the things are offered, make your gift-selecting so very easy and satisfactory.
