Baldwin Plans Yuletide Programs

Every year Baldwin high school observes the Yuletide season in its own way.

The traditional Christmas tree glittering in the main hall will be but a memory this year. The fire department has ruled the tree out because of fire hazards.

As always, the juke box will play Christmas carols during the noon hour and the Spanish classes have been practicing carols, which they will sing in the halls. A wider selection of carols translated into Spanish has been obtained. These include "Deck the Halls," "First Noel," "Jingle Bells," "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing" and "Silent Night."

The annual Christmas assembly will be presented next Wednesday, and consists of a play and musical numbers.

Christmas Assembly at Baldwin Will Be Held Next Wednesday

The annual Christmas assembly at Baldwin will be presented Dec. 22. The program will consist of a one-act play, "A Toast To Christmas," a dramatic reading of "Little Misery" by Suzanne Mason, and various Christmas selections sung by the school choir.

The cast of "A Toast To Christmas" is Jerry Neumann as Richard Shelton, a Hollywood star; Janet Mills, Stephanie Shelton, his wife; Ira Hovan, Charles, the Shelton's butler; Ann Groves, Fanny, the Shelton's maid; Bill Crowell, Dick Krushenski; and Grant Davies, a newspaper photographer.

Pack B-8 Mends Toys For Salvation Army

Members of Cub Pack B-8, Adams School, pitched in at Santa's helpers this year and have been busy painting and repairing toys. They have even made some new ones and jig-saw puzzles.

When the pack met Tuesday evening, results of their labors were turned over to the Salvation Army headquarters in Pontiac for distribution among the needy families in the area.

An additional feature to the meeting were the advancement and flag ceremonies.

New Sidewalk OK'd

Construction of a sidewalk on the west side of Stanley Blvd., between Lincoln and Northlawn, has been approved by the city commission.
