

Musicales Presents Christmas Time in Poetry and Music

The Birmingham Musicales will present Nanette Norton, 18-year-old harpist and the choral ensemble of the Musicales on Thursday, Dec. 9, in the Community House.

Christmas in many lands expressed in poetry and music is the theme around which the program is woven. "A Christmas Carol" by Phillip Brooks, and other poems depicting the Yule Tide, will be narrated by Ruth Eise.

Miss Norton has been a pupil of Zelma Froude since her ninth birthday. At Cass Technical high school she held the position of first harpist with the school orchestra and first flutist with the band.

Recently she studied at the Summer Harp Colony of America, Camden, Maine. Her selections include Salzedo's "Song of the Night," "Night Breeze" and "Concert Variations on Adeste Fideles."

First Appearance
The choral ensemble, directed by Gertrude Heinze Greer, will make its first appearance this season. The ensemble, consisting of approximately 50 voices, will be heard in folk songs and carols of French, Swiss, English and Swedish origin.

Choral members joining in the small ensembles are Hazel Batty, Pauline Black, Helen de Bruyn, Eva Eberole, Faith Lawrance, Dorothy Mitchell, Gladys Robb, Myra Sells, Ruth Swartz, Barbara Williams, Marian Williams, Marietta Wilson and Jean Whelan. Accompanist will be Esther Melly, assisted by Miss Norton.

Honored Guest
Mrs. Allen B. Crow, president of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs, will be an honored guest at the meeting. Chairmen of the day are Mrs. Edward E. Chapman and Mrs. Norman Lyle. Hostesses will be Mrs. Syver Thingstad, Mrs. Elmore S. Wolhering and Mrs. Draper Allen.

The tea committee consists of Mrs. J. E. Eckersode, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ferry B. Allen, Mrs. Lawrence Hyland, Mrs. E. Uebels, Mrs. James A. Grier, and Mrs. C. H. Maurice.
