Last Court Practice Held as 'V' Opens Basketball Season

In final practice games Rotary sponsored club defeated Michigan Bell, 32 to 23, as Jack Simmons, Retary Blue and White in their initial encounter. Cliff McBride, playing at right forward position, garnered eight points to keep pace with Simonds and hold the Rotary advantage from the first quarter throughout the entire game. Paul Westerly had five baskets for a total of 10 points to pace the Blue and Gold of Michigan Bell.

In a game in which 21 fouls were called, A's All Stars defeated W. A. Calder 28 to 18. Ben Little and Paul Carter scored nine and eight points respectively as the Larsen led quintet racked up a 14 to 5 half-time score and stayed in front through out the last half of play.

In the final game Exchange Club defeated Virginia Market 23 to 12 in a close game in which the lead was exchanged twice in the first half and once in the third quarter. Dan Fleischer had four baskets and one foul shot for high point man in the scoring for Exchange while Bud Martin was high for Virginia Market with seven points.

A full schedule of League play starting next Monday evening, is carried elsewhere in this paper.
