

Mrs. Irwin Shuter Is Chairman of Christmas Party

Each member of the Altar Society of Holy Name parish is asked to bring a white elephant gift in holiday wrapping to the regular December meeting set for Monday, the 6th at 2:30 p.m. in the Community House. After the business meeting, there will be a Christmas party. Tea is to be served in the Ruth Shain room by St. Rita's Guild, the hostess group for the affair.

Mrs. Irwin Shuter, general chairman, is being assisted by Mrs. Bernard Lourin, Mrs. Donald McGaffey, Mrs. Gregory Frederick, Mrs. Edward Stenger, and Mrs. David Williams.

Mary Gardner to Become Bride of Clark E. Pardee

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner of Aspen road announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, to Clark Emory Pardee, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pardee of Henkle street.

The bride-elect, a graduate of Denison University and the Eastern School of Music, is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority and Sigma Alpha Iota, national music fraternity. Her fiance was graduated from the University of Michigan where he was affiliated with Chi Psi fraternity.

Miss Gardner has chosen Dec. 23 for the date of her marriage and the Rev. W. Glen Harris will officiate at the 8:30 o'clock evening rite in the First Presbyterian Church. She has asked her sister, Miss Margaret L. Gardner to be her maid of honor and has named Misses Judy Pardee, a sister of the bridegroom-to-be; Betty Stall and Caroline Wright, all of Birmingham, to act as her honor maids.

Zack E. Pardee of Birmingham will be his brother's best man and the guests will be seated by Gene McCullough of Pontiac; Charles W. Lewis and Robert Kendall of Birmingham; James O. Neeble of Detroit; Herbert H. Gardner, Jr., a brother of the bride-elect, also of Birmingham.

The Oakland Hills Country Club will be the setting for the reception following the nuptials.

GIRL SCOUTS

The 15 Brownies of Troop 18, meeting at Adams school, have held their investing ceremony and are now established as an active troop with membership in the Christian organization of Girl Scouts. Under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Yingling and Mrs. Terry Taylor, these third grade Brownies are working on Christmas gifts and cards.

Since their meeting is regularly held on Thursday, and there was no school on Thanksgiving, they joined with Troop 16, led by Mrs. T. A. Lewis and Mrs. Wm. Kegel, and held a joint Thanksgiving party Wednesday, Nov. 24.

Troop 32, fifth grade intermediate Girl Scouts, meeting at Pierce school, have a membership of 25 and have as their leaders, Mrs. Robert Kesley and Mrs. E. Ebbert.

A nosebag lunch was the main feature of a hike to Springdale Park this fall and then a baking session. At their meeting at Hal- loween time each girl turned sculptor and carved her own pumpkin which she took home as a memento. They are now rooting the philodendron cuttings for Christmas plants and knitting Christmas stockings.

Scouts Make Looms Troop 17, meeting at Holy Name school under the leadership of Mrs. John Savage and Mrs. D. M. Biggs, have been making puppets which they wove on looms of their own construction. While the air was still balmy, this troop held a cook-out at Springdale Park.

Busy on Badges Troop 4 at Quanton school which is composed of 14th grade Girl Scouts, is busy on badge work in the program fields of home-making, literature and dramatics, and arts and crafts, report troop leaders Mrs. Paul McDonald and Gardner Allen.

Cookie Boxes Sold All troops will be busy next week in distributing the 3,000 boxes of Girl Scout cookies which they have sold in and around Birmingham.

MRS. HARRY HUCHANAN will be hostess to a group of her friends at cocktails and luncheon tomorrow. Afterwards they will play bridge.

Many Surprises at Holy Name Bazaar

The auditorium of Holy Name school was taken over this weekend by the First and Second Christmas Bazaar. Proceeds of the bazaar go towards the purchase of a sound projector and screen for the school.

Mrs. Joseph C. Knecht, general chairman of the sale, has announced that the booths will be open from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 4, and from 2 a.m. until 2 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 5.

Aprons, handkerchiefs, food, plants, dolls and doll clothes, toys and parcel post packages will be sold on the various booths. Mrs. Donald Fairbairn has arranged a novelty Christmas tree on which will be a skating doll dressed by Mrs. A. D. Slatkin. The doll will wear an exact duplicate of the costume worn by Mrs. Slatkin when, as Constance Wilson, she won the figure skating championship of North America and Great Britain.

Children Invited The sale is open to the general public and the children are especially invited. Santa Claus will be on hand from 2 until 5 on Saturday afternoon with a gift for each child. In place of the usual grab-bag, there will be a gypsy wearing an apron of many pockets filled with surprises.

Women in the booths include, the Mesdames B. W. Stephenson, E. Shannon, Jr., L. M. Hogan, Thomas L. Gordon, J. M. Constant Bouchard, Donald McGaffey, Warren Sumner, Gordon Johnston, James C. O'Connor, John M. Savage, Jr., Dominic Caputo, Charles Lewis, Miss Joan Sternal and John McGaffey.

Mother M. Colette IHM, principal of Holy Name school, is in charge of articles being donated by the Girl Scouts for their own booth at the bazaar.

Familiar Carols Will be Feature of Christmas Tea The Woman's Society of the First Methodist Church will hold its annual Christmas tea on Dec. 3. A business meeting arranged by Mrs. Arnold Herald.

The program will open with professional, "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing," with Robert D. Elder at the organ. Devotions with a Christmas theme will be given by Miss Ella Adams.

A highlight among special Christmas musical features will be the performance of Jean Elder Holmeyer, violinist, who will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Robert Elder at the organ. They will play "Lay the Handful," from The Handful, and "Nazareth," by Gounod.

The other special musical feature will be the Baldwin high school choir under the direction of Victor Ulrich. Their program includes "Clocueresheim" by Wassail, an old English carol arranged by Tom Scott; "Carol of the Bells," by Shostakovich; "Lullaby of Jesus," a French carol; "I Saw Three Ships" and "The Night Before Christmas," by Ken Darby, arranged by Simone.

The accompanists are Nancy Chesna and Alyssanne Dove. At the close of the musical program, tea will be served by the Susanna Wesley group.

Many Favorites to be Sung by Local Men's Glee Club Robert Bates, conductor of the Birmingham Men's Glee Club, announced on Tuesday the final program selection for the group's annual winter concert scheduled for Dec. 9 in the Community House.

The performance will begin at 8:30 p.m. and is to include "Let Every Tongue Adore Thee," by Bach; "Thanks to God," by Dickson; "Old Crusader's Hymn," arranged by W. Riegger; Richter's "The Creation," the traditional "Erie Canal"; two traditional Italian folk songs; "John Fenn," by Andrews and Kouris; "The Sleigh."

Following the intermission there will be vocal selections by Mrs. Harold Walker, wife of one of the organization members; then "Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming" by Pratorius; de la Monnoye's "Les Adieux"; Bach's "The Shepherd's Christmas Song"; Holst's "Ideo, Ideo" and Gruber's "Silent Night."
