Check the Price — check the Policy — "Buick's the Buy!"

EVER since this '49 Buick made its bow, we've been telling you it's a buy. We've invited you to match it—feature by feature and dollar for dollar—with anything else offered to you. You can start with the delivered prices shown here.

But don't stop with that. Check the policy under which Buicks are sold—and see for yourself that Buick means a better deal as well as a better buy!

Briefly, our Four-Square sales policy is this:

- NO PRICE PADDING! We guarantee our prices at no cost containing anything but charges that were standard practice in figuring prewar delivered prices. You receive an itemized bill of sale showing all charges. And we display our prices in our showroom.
- NO "LOADING" OF UNWANTED ACCESSORIES. All cars are delivered with accessories as ordered. We pledge ourselves to add no "extras" you do not want.
- NO COMPULSORY TRADE-INS. Selling used cars is part of our business. Naturally we like to take cars in trade. But you do not have to sell your car. We will take your order, and deliver your car, without requiring a car in-trade!
- NO COLLUSION WITH "GRAY MARKETTERS." We will not knowingly be party to a sale of Buick cars to an individual who operates in the "gray market." Our interest is entirely in delivering cars to bona fide customers. In other words—you know exactly where you stand when you buy a Buick. What you get—what you pay—all the details of the deal open and aboveboard.

So we repeat: Check the price. Check the policy. Buick's the buy any way you want to look at it.

TO HEAR REVIEW

The first meeting of the new year for the Women's Society of the First Methodist Church will be held Jan. 5 at 1:00. After an informal luncheon served by the Hattie Evans Group, Mrs. Garland G. Gee will review the book "The Hidden Years" by John O'Connell. Mrs. Gee is a member of the Metropolitan Methodist Church in Detroit, and a social worker in that area. The meeting is open to all persons interested. A nursery will be provided at a nominal fee for those who would like to bring their children.

intersection of Woodward and 14 Mile. There have been many accidents there in the past, and unless conditions are changed, it will continue to be a dangerous spot. Last week another crash took place involving a car and a truck. Commissioner Bruce Bosh and his 12 year old son, Richard.

Little damage was noted here in the severe storm which struck this vicinity Sunday night. It was estimated that tons of water fell in a short time, and while damage here was light, nearby cities and villages suffered extensively. The rain fell in torrents through interrupted light and power service and plugged sewer systems.

R. W. Budd of the Birmingham Greyhound office announced this week that two-way radios were being installed in the Greyhound buses. It is estimated that these will prove of great value to passengers and drivers. The buses will be equipped with intercom systems which will permit the driver to be contacted without leaving his bus.

Jerome Naysert and William Cantor are serious contenders for the Presidency while moving a four-ton vault door at the Birmingham National Cemetery. The door tipped, plugging Naysert to the floor and knocking Cantor aside. As the door fell, it struck the vault door, which kept its full weight from striking the men. Rushed to the hospital for examination, his injuries were found to be slight.

Elmer Sylvester, local chairman for the Crusade for Children has reported a total of $1058 received during the first week. In thanking the workers for their services, he reported that the splendid support, Sylvester said he felt sure the $7500 quota would be topped later.

The first unit of the Graefeld Terrace is nearing completion and what classes held the other side. Fred K. Graef of Franklin, has done extensive planning and is at work on developing the 10-acre tract, which is one of the largest Birmingham building projects.

Word has been received here from Washington, D. C., that Miss Dorothy Williams, feature writer for the Washington bureau of the Associated Press, had been named president of the Press Club. Miss Williams is well known here, having been society editor and feature writer for the Birmingham Eccentric from 1924 to 1930. She left her position here to go to Detroit.

Issue of May 27

Col. Chester B. McCormick, Cranbrook road, died suddenly Sunday. Funeral services were held Wednesday from the Funeral Home, with burial in the Arlington National Cemetery. The colonel will be given full military honors. Col. McCormick was a veteran of the Spanish American War, Mexican border campaign, and World War I, and was one of the founders of the American Legion in 1919.

Baldwin high trackmen romped their way through the state relay track meet at Farndale Saturday, to end with a score of 35.5 points ahead of their closest opponents. Not once during the entire meet, was the Birmingham lead even threatened.

Birmingham veterans are making plans for their annual observance of Memorial Day. The program will open with the traditional parade, which will disband at the Municipal building. Gen. George D. Pence, wartime chief of staff in the Mediterranean theater and Stanley E. Reinhart will be the speakers of the day.

H. R. Estes, 492 Rivenook, has announced that he has filed his nominating petitions with the county clerk for Sept. 14. He is a Republican candidate for state representative of the 3rd district of Oakland County, and is completing his second term of office now.

Issue of June 3
Norman Wolfe, assistant superintendent of the Birmingham school reported slight damage in the vandalism display at Quarters school last week. He added that five boys had been apprehended and were ordered to appear with their parents at police headquarters for hearing. The matter was turned back to the school board and parents for disposition.

A survey has been completed of the adult classes being held in the Community House. It was made so that it could be determined what classes held the greatest appeal for Birmingham residents, and to gather information which might lead to the formation of additional groups.

Brad Kempton, J.F., playing on the Springfield golf course, had the thrill which many an adult hopes for and never gets—a hole in one. The 15 year old Baldwin sophomore made a 193-yard drive at the seventh hole. He was playing with Granville Dance, and the shot was also witnessed by Melville Robb.

Mayor Miller F. Mallender revealed Monday night that the contract for the construction of a new bridge on West Maize, will probably be awarded within a year. An engineer has been engaged by the city, and is working on the plans for the bridge, which, according to Donald Bridget, city manager, will be located north of the present one.

Issue of June 10
Samuel R. Bennett, principal of the secondary schools in LeRoy, N. Y., has been named principal of Barnum Junior high school, according to an announcement made by the Birmingham Board of Education. Bennett will succeed Miles W. Robinson, and will begin his duties at the opening of school in the fall. He has had 15 years classroom experience, and has held his present position in LeRoy for the past six years.

Robert Magidoff, NBC correspondent in Russia, spoke before members of the League of Women Voters Monday night. He told of his experiences in that country, and of his being deported from the country after he was accused of espionage.
