

Parke-Davis Legion Post Icicle Frolic Will Be Televised

The Icicle Frolic, to be held in the Grand Ball Room of the Masonic auditorium Feb. 20, will mark the first time that Detroit television has visited a dance. Cameras and crew of WJTV will invade the affair being sponsored by the Parke-Davis American Legion Post, filming it for presentation on the Detroit Television News Reel for Wednesday, Feb. 28.

Birmingham's Bill Gall and his orchestra will play for the dance, which will be highlighted by a beauty contest to select the most popular girls at Parke Davis.

B'ham Estates Votes Against Re-Zoning

The Birmingham Estates Association held their annual meeting Thursday evening, Feb. 12, in Adams School. The following were elected to the board of directors: Robert C. Gibson, president; Francis S. Pomroy, vice president; John Chapman, secretary; Everett Walsh, treasurer and Leo W. Sheehy, director.

The association voted against the proposed change in zoning restrictions which would permit the erection of multiple dwelling units on Eton road between Haynes street and Villa road.

Game on Ice

Cranbrook School hockey team won 4-0 on Thursday in a contest with Catholic Central of Detroit, played on the Cranbrook School rink.

Maples Will Have to Go Some to Defeat 'Big Red'

By Jim McCall

With the close of the season near, the Maples took to Port Huron Friday night for a tough battle with the undefeated Blue Water outfit while Dearborn comes Tuesday to play in the local gym.

Even if Birmingham defeats the Big Red team, league standings remain the same with Port Huron first and Birmingham second.

Mid-year graduation snatched away Earl Boyd and Jack McKay, two Port Huron regulars.

Fifth is State

The Big Red has racked up eight wins and four losses with Alex Goetz as their leader.

Fifth in the state at the first of the season, Dearborn promises to be the strongest squad the Maroon marauders will meet.

Citing examples from the Old Testament, Mr. Towne stressed that only through complete family life will religion retain its vitality.

Family Life Gives Church Vitality, Minister Declares

Rev. Harold E. Towne, rector of St. James Episcopal Church, was the guest speaker at the School of Religion last Monday evening and spoke on the theme, "How to Get Along With One's Family."

He stated that the church and family have the same lines in that both exist in love. He likened the family to the backbone of the church by stating, "First, each family and its individual members must have a deep sense of church responsibility. Second, each must have a deep sense of collaboration and interdependence. Third, parents should constantly smelt the role of teachers and set right examples. They should put their teachings into practice."

Cites Examples

Citing examples from the Old Testament, Mr. Towne stressed that only through complete family life will religion retain its vitality.

"Church attendance and participation in the church program must be for everyone," he stated in closing.

The program picture, "The Book for the World of Tomorrow," was shown during the between class period.

Classroom Workshops Miss Julia Kagin, Mrs. E. K. Schadt and Mrs. L. Irving Woolson will conduct a work shop on (1) making a diorama, (2) creative writing, and (3) making Bible slides, all of these dealing with the Easter story as part of their classroom sessions next week.

A contest to determine the owner of the oldest Bible in Birmingham is being waged among the registrants. Each has been urged to bring the oldest one in his possession to the assembly program next week. A prize of a new Bible is his reward.

Kingswood-Cranbrook Music Departments Rehearse 'Iolanthe'

The music departments of Kingswood and Cranbrook schools will present their fourth annual Gilbert and Sullivan opera, "Iolanthe" Feb. 27 and 28 at 8:15 p.m. in the Cranbrook School auditorium.

The leading roles will be played by Carol Lombard as the Queen, Helen Gillilan as Iolanthe; Laird Stabler as the Queen's son, Stephen; Phyllis Nancy Allen; Clay Don; the Lord Chancellor.

The supporting players will be Tom Herbert, John Rice, Robert Kerns, Barbara Behn, Sue Cunningham and Ann Walrad.

The dramatic roles will be supported by the members of the school's choruses.

Robert Bates of the music department, being assisted in directing rehearsals by Merrell Condit, stage director; Lois Johnson Chapman, director of the Kingswood Glee Club and Alex Manguson, director of the Cranbrook Orchestra. Scenery for the opera is being prepared by members of the art department under the supervision of Richard Hintermeister. Dudley Pennell is the student stage crew manager, while Lauren Otis is the student business manager. Tickets will be sold only at the door.

Church League Standings Change

First Presbyterian Church got by Holy Name 40 to 20 last week to move into third place in the Woodland Avenue boys could not compete with illness and injuries to put their best team on the floor. Bruce Torrance and Bill Robertson sank 13 baskets between them to give the North Woodland quintet a comfortable margin.

Lathrup Township led St. James Episcopal for three quarters and managed to match baskets in the fourth to give out a 19-10-17 victory. Ed Cobb scored 13 points to pace his team in this thriller.

Embury Methodist scored at will and had Franklin Community Church completely bewildered as it netted its fifth consecutive victory by a 57-40 score. Roger Reynolds and Harry Sargin combined to score 34 points between them. This team has averaged 52 points a game and holds the league's individual scoring records.

Records show that a total of 99 enlisted men and 12 officers named John Paul Jones have served in the Navy since 1858.
