Baldwin Tankers Win First Dual Swimming Meet

By Phil Allen
Taking Birmingham's first swimming meet in 18 years, the Maple tankers subdued Hazel Park's Vikings 45-19 in a duo meet at their pool last Thursday night.

Hazel Park ran up a quick lead by taking the free style sprint and the 100-yard breast stroke; but the lead was short lived when Neil Stoll came splashing in with a first for Birmingham in the 200-yard free style.

Bob Webster was the Maples' second winner when he captured the 100-yard backstroke.

Hazel Park won the 120-yard individual medley, but the Webster-Campbell-Hedley combination elicited a first in the 120-yard medley relay. Fancy diving was won by Jack Goodwin with Bob Woodruff runner-up.

Birmingham had Hazel Park each had four firsts, but Birmingham was on team balance, points being also given for second and third places. The Maples collected five seconds against the Vikings two, and each team had three thirds.

The Baldwin a cappella choir offered entertainment for the monthly luncheon of the Newcomers' Club today in the Community House.

Numbers presented by the choir include "Country Style," "Russian Picnic," "All The Things You Are," and "Bolero."

The group is directed by Victor Ulrich and accompanied by Nancy Chesna.

Faculty Opposes Varsity March 15

The Varsity Club vs. faculty game is now sure to take place March 15. This game was originally scheduled to be played Friday, 14, but because members of the faculty were not able to be there and numerous other activities had been scheduled that week, the game was postponed.

Proceeds from this game will go into the Varsity Club treasury for the purchase of a moving picture camera to photograph athletic events.

Maple Cagers Take Second Place Slot

By Bill Robertson
Taking undisputed possession of second place in the Eastern Michigan league standings, the Birmingham snipers defeated the Mt. Clemens Bathers, 38-21, in a rough-and-tumble battle at Mt. Clemens last week.

The Maples were especially accurate on their long shots, sinking 14 out of 35 for a 400 rating.

The Bathers were unable to hit from the floor until the second quarter was half gone. In the meantime the Maples were using the fast break to good advantage, pulling up a half-time lead of 19-11.

Mt. Clemens came back strong in the second half, using a pressing man-to-man defense. However, the Maples were able to keep their lead and come home with their fifth league triumph.

Bob Polin again paced the Maples' scoring by tallying 14 markers while Jack Schwartz and Jack Moore each sank ten points for the loggers.

Due to weather conditions and the season of the year, Birmingham's intramural program has taken a back seat to ping pong. Tables have been set up, and every noon crowds of students flock to the contests, watching intently as students feud teachers battle with the elusive little ball.

Mother Nature took a hand in the healthiest game with Hazel Park last Friday, rain from a waking-ventilator kept cheerleaders or janitors busy wiping a spot on the gym floor.

Tonight Is Date of Minstrel Show

Tonight at eight o'clock the Old South will spring to life again as Baldwin's minstrel-led boys present "Darktown Folliks," with proceeds augmenting funds of the Washington Lig.

The money received from each ticket will be distributed equally between the student selling it and the trip general fund. Washington group members have all been busy this week and last with freshmen.

While nearly all of the students of Birmingham's schools are planning to attend the show, a large number of adults is expected also. They have been flocking to the school for tickets, not just because the profits go to such a good cause, but because of reports from Baldwin students who saw a similar show in assembly recently.

Tickets are obtainable from group members, with rush seats available at the door.

Miss Dorothy Allen is general director of the show and Victor Ulrich is in charge of music.
