

Conservative MP to Speak to Group at Luncheon Meet

Mrs. Charles Shain, president of the Foreign Policy Association, will officiate at the luncheon Friday, Feb. 27, at 12 noon at the Fort Shelby Hotel when Colonel James Riley Holt Hutchinson, a Conservative member of British Parliament for Central Glasgow, will be guest speaker.

The Colonel, whose nom de guerre was "Colonel Hastings" during World War II, was one of Britain's most daring and colorful heroes. An officer who had his face drastically changed by plastic surgeons so that the Gestapo would not recognize him from their records as a known British agent, he is the man who parachuted into France to help organize the Maquis.

Colonel Hutchinson who will be introduced by British Consul General D. P. H. Brickell, will speak in "Developing the Economic World."

The board of directors of the Foreign Policy Association include Mr. and Mrs. Philip Pretz, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. John Gillray and Mr. and Mrs. S. Phoenix.
