Musical Group to Hear Recital by Two Artists

The regular monthly meeting of the Birmingham Musicals will be held at the Community House on Thursday, Feb. 12, at 3 P.M.

The program will be presented by two very well known Birmingham artists. Her program will include four songs by Edward Greg and a second group of numbers by contemporary composers. She will be assisted at the piano by Robert Bates, who is a member of the faculty of Cranbrook School.

Concentrated work on both instruments was carried on in Detroit, New York and at the American Conservatoire at Fontainebleau, France, preceding appearances in recital and with orchestras in Michigan and in the East. These were highlighted by performances at White House musicales as piano soloist in 1935 and as one of a two-piano team with Louise McDonald in 1940.

Chairman of the day will be Mrs. Donald T. Stanton. Hostess chairman will be Mrs. George Fitch and the pianists will be Mrs. Hoyt Gilbert, Mrs. Elmer Gove, and Mrs. Shelton Wright.

Children who do not have season tickets may secure single tickets now from the schools or Grinnell's in Birmingham.

The Cabbage Patch is a dilapidated section of the south side of Louisville, Ky., at the turn of the century. It was here that Mrs. Wiggs guided the destinies of her impoverished family, and gave her ready humor and a contagious philosophy that refused to see the world as it was, but as it should be. The sparkling action and comedy of Clare Tree Major's stage version of the internationally famous work has made it one of her most successful productions. It is being brought to Birmingham under the auspices of the A.A.U.W. Children's Theatre.

Mrs. Harry G. Hamilton will chairmen the Valentine Tea following the regular meeting of the Birmingham Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association to be held at the Community House Monday, Feb. 9, at 1:30 p.m.
