Save the Children Federation Cited for Efficiency by National Unit

The Birmingham Chapter of the Save the Children Federation has been cited by the National Headquarters in New York City as being the most active and responsive chapter of that organization in the United States.

Another announcement of interest was made at an annual dinner given Jan. 29 at the Detroit Branch of the Y.W.C.A. simultaneously with all branches of the Federation throughout the country, granting the permission and cooperation of the Australian Government in allowing the Federation to enter that country for the first time.

The Federation has also been included with two other outstanding organizations, the Salvation Army and the Quakers, as being the most direct and personal in their foreign relief work. Red tape is cut and these three organizations see that bona fide cases of need have immediate attention by their foreign representatives.

"But there is much to be done and work on layettes is essential. Anyone willing to contribute her time to sewing for this project will be most welcome," said Mrs. Rudolph Koch, president of the Birmingham chapter at a tea for the members at her home on Fairfax Road, Feb. 2.

Mrs. Dorothy Haskely is chairman of the layette committee, assisted by Mrs. Robert Schilling, Mrs. Albert Reibling, Mrs. Paul Wagner, Mrs. Owen Henderson and Mrs. A. M. Wauters.

Read these COAL FACTS about COAL HEAT in DETROIT

SUPPLY: Yes, oil is scarce, and probably will be for some time. Detroit coal users, however, can be assured of an ample supply of coal to be comfortable this and future winters.

DEPENDABILITY: Coal users of Detroit have never been out of coal even when the industry has been confronted with transportation and labor difficulties. Coal has kept homes warm and the wheels of industry turning throughout two wars without coupon rationing.

EQUIPMENT: Modern coal-burning equipment such as hopper or bin-fed automatic coal stokers offer the most comfortable, automatic, clean heat. They are available today and for immediate installation, as are automatic controls for hand-fired furnaces.

TEMPERATURE: Coal users do not have to turn back thermostats or close off rooms. They can enjoy unlimited comfort. Who says 70 degrees, or even lower, is the right temperature? The right temperature is that at which you are comfortable.

ECONOMY: Coal is the most economical fuel available. This is an important factor in your monthly budget.

SERVICE: Your furnace or stoker in prime condition will give you the best results from your coal. To have serviced, call your local coal retailer; if he has no facilities, call CHERRY 4331.
