Former Birmingham Girl is Married in Germany

An American girl who went overseas two years ago to work in the United States Secret Message Control and romantically met her future husband in Europe, was wed Jan. 9.

Miss Alice Josephine Westcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick George Westcott of St. Petersburg, Fla., and for more than 30 years resident of Birmingham, became the bride of William Edward Johnson of Ventnor, N. J., serving in the U. S. A. Security Agency in Germany.

A short time ago Mrs. O. W. Anderson of Riverview, Birmingham, received a trans-Atlantic phone call from her sister requesting a bridal trousseau. She flew to her in Germany. Mrs. Anderson did the required shopping here and thus furnished the colorful attire for the wedding which took place in Roudupf Chapel, Frankfurt am Main.

Chaplin C. S. Gunther read the marriage service before a candle. It all took place in the quiet old church. The bride was attired in ivory satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline encrusted in tiny pearls.
