Oscar A. Goye
Oscar A. Goye, 554 West Frank street, died suddenly Sunday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, following a heart attack. He was born Sept. 21, 1888, in Chicago, and married Clara D. Ieterie Oct. 10, 1914, in Maywood, Ill.

For the past 17 years Mr. Goye had been a resident of Birmingham. He was employed as a clerk in the GM Truck and Coach division and had formerly been a clerk for the Michigan Unemployment Commission.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two sons, Louis R. and Robert D., and one grandson, Michael, all of Birmingham; a sister, Mrs. Viola Marker, and a brother, Leonard Goye, both of Chicago.

Funeral services were held Tuesday from the Manly Bailey Funeral home with Dr. W. Glen Harris, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. Burial was made in White Chapel Cemetery.

Rose Bowl Fans See Televised Broadcast

Many Birmingham people were introduced to Television last Thursday evening when several Birmingham dealers transformed their showrooms into auditoriums and invited customers in to see the televising of the Rose Bowl game between the University of Michigan and Southern California.

Nearly 100 persons witnessed the televised ball game at Leonard's Electric. About 60 were guests at Grinelli's and 40 folks gathered at the McCallum and Dean show rooms to see the game.

Cranbrook Wrestlers Win from Ann Arbor

Cranbrook's wrestling team lost by 27-1 to Ann Arbor Friday afternoon at the Cranbrook School gymnasium.

Winning matches were Gerry LeLan, Olof Karlstrom, Milton Matter, Bruce Smith and Helmut Heuser of Cranbrook School.

Butch Jordan, wrestling and line coach at the University of Michigan and holder of the Big Nine heavyweight championship in 1940, was the official.

Harris, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. Burial was made in White Chapel Cemetery.

There was a man in our town: And he was wondrous wise He saved his coal and saved his gas And did economize AND WE URGE YOU TO ECONOMIZE THIS WINTER We dislike finding ourselves giving you advice instead of gas. Perhaps we can explain. Your gas company was a war-time casualty, too. The demand for gas both from domestic and commercial users, rose to an all time high. More people came to agree with what we've been preaching right along—that gas is safe, clean, and one of the most economical of all fuels.
