BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

Hi, Kiddies!
 One of the week-end's outstanding activities was the basketball game with Ferrada Friday. Cheering the players Annie van Red Beanson, Dave Maylen, Hal Hemming, Tim Reed, Cynthia Hadley, Phil Allen, Lynn Martin, Betty Thayer, Sherrill Williams, Carolyn Abbott, Jack Shensfield, Dick Greig and Jim Patterson.

Saturday evening found Mrs. Kennedy, Deane Cramer, Peg Gould, Dan Grigg, Giner Reinhart, Bob King, Sis Thurston, Bob Joyce, and many others tripping the light fantastic at the Winter Interlude at the Community House.

Winter sports were also on the program for Saturday night in spite of the cold weather. Annie found Nancy Gess, Hap Kosborough, Zant Finback and Steve Campbell cutting up the ice on Quaker Lake. At the same time some of the rest of the crowd were tobogganing out at the Brize Estate.

We feel certain that the smartest plan was spending a quiet evening in front of a fire as Jo Luconner, Danny Converse, Jackie Carl and Don Deagan did.

Remember, kiddies, exams are on the way and now is the time to study.

So long for now, Annie.

New Activities Mark GAA Plans

Many new activities mark the GAA's calendar of events for next semester planned at a meeting of the club officers last week.

Inaugurating the season, a bowling banquet will be held in the cooking room at Hill school, including an eight weeks' bowling schedule. Awards will be presented to the individual high scorers and the team maintaining the highest average.

A mock fashion show will be presented during the half of the Varsity Club-Faculty basketball game Feb. 18. Models illustrating the evolution of girls' outfits will feature bathing suits and gym uniforms of the early '20's. Kern McKay is general chairman of this event.

Faculty Challenged
 The Presbyterian church's sports enthusiasts will be shown the rules and intricate plays of field hockey by GAA members Barbara Hughes and Audrey Engel February 18 during a sports program presented by Frank A. Whitney, Birmingham athletic director.

The GAA again has challenged the faculty to a basketball game to be played March 4 in the Birmingham gymnasium. Fights for the girls' basketball team will be held as soon as the GAA basketball season begins.

The annual Sharks pageant will be presented in April at the close of the swimming season, with 52 interested.

The newly organized girls' swimming team will enter its first contest in March at Northwestern high school, Detroit, in the AAUW invitational meet.

Week End at Camp George

Skating and skating were some of the many activities enjoyed by a group of Sea Scouts from the Sea Scout Ship Hunter who spent last week-end at Camp George, the Boy Scout reservation.

Drill in rigging a beehive buoy aided an educational note to the outing.

From where I sit . . . by Joe Marshall

Who Are We, Anyway?

Subject came up at Bill Webster's, the other day, as we were chatting over beer and pretzels. Just who are the folks who make up our town? Where'd they come from? Well, Doc Hollister's Scotch-English ancestry; Will Dudley's folks were mining stock from Pennsylvania; Skip Powell's family were brewers back in Holland. Guess our bloodstream's got a bit of every country of the globe—and every section of America. We're still got differences in taste and background—whether they apply to music, history, or beer. Only those differences don't matter—because we're self-respecting people, in a free, united land.

And from where I sit, that's what makes our towns and cities—our America—so strong, progressive, tolerant. Our championship of individual liberties has brought us people from all faiths, all lands—to prove that respect for one another's rights is the greatest bond humanity can know!
