Mrs. Sherman Gives Lecture to PTA

Mrs. Morgan Sherman, well known authority on family relations, will give the second in a series of six discussions Thursday to school PTA members at 1:30 in the Quarian School cafeteria.

In her opening lecture Jan. 15, Mrs. Sherman suggested five ideas for parents to consider: inability to enjoy children, confusion as to education, failure of Americans to achieve happiness, a desire for money and discouragement toward politics.

Mrs. Sherman conceded that Birmingham is an unusual community and well adjusted to handle daily problems, but felt that the nation at large was not fully living up to its obligations.

"Marriage and the home," she said, "are the basis for future America and the adults in the country are sadly lacking in a proper understanding of how important these fundamentals really are."

Mrs. Sherman has a master's degree from Wayne University, is a wife and the mother of two daughters. As a nursery school and camp leader and teacher of elementary and high school students, she has tried out her theories in a practical manner.

Franklin P.T.A. will meet Monday, Jan. 26, at the Franklin School. The room fathers will conduct the meeting. C. H. Dixon is chairman and will be assisted by R. Corkey, Carmen Adams and William Maloney.

Have You Met . . . Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spencer, who have moved from Detroit? Mrs. Spencer is a former Birmingham girl and before her marriage was Brocton Gattman. Mr. Spencer is with the transmission division of General Motors Corp. They are now making their home at 288 Oakland avenue.
