

Community Council Takes on Food Conservation Work

The Community Council at its Tuesday lunch meeting at the Community House, voted unanimously to take over the food conservation work in Birmingham as long term educational program. The original committee, headed by Mrs. Howard J. Liverance, is now dissolved, Mayor Ralph Main said, in thanking the Community Council for its action.

The emergency committee under Mrs. Liverance has done an excellent and thorough job," he said Council delegates. "Big the time has come for an organization like your own, representing most of the working groups in town, to carry on the necessary educational program."

Members of the mayor's food committee who volunteered to continue their work under the Community Council include: Mrs. Howard J. Liverance, Mrs. Charles Blunt, Mrs. Raymond Duffels, Mrs. Peter Loomis, Mrs. Hugh McLesco, Mrs. Neil McMath, Mrs. F. Chalmers Smith and the Rev. James Wright.

concerning your Gift to the Bride

The supreme happiness, deservedly hers on her Wedding Day, demands more than usual thoughtfulness on the part of those who mark the occasion with their Gifts.

Your Gift, if chosen for such attributes as beauty, usefulness and distinctively fine quality—together with a never-grow-old character—will certainly add to her joy, and be remembered with genuine satisfaction long after the immediate occasion.

That is the kind of Gift to the Bride one finds at LaBelles, where attention to beautiful wrapping plays its part too—for your Gift is wedding-wrapped so beautifully that it becomes successful from the moment it is glimpsed.
