Winifred Heidt, Known Here, To Sing in Detroit

Winifred Hutton Heidt, contralto star of the Philadelphia LaScala Opera company, will be heard in a recital at the Detroit

Winifred Heidt

Institute of Arts auditorium Tuesday evening. The program is being sponsored by the Tuesday Musicals of Detroit, of which Miss Heidt is a former member. Born in Detroit, the singer came to Birmingham with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton B. Hutton, and for some time made her home on Lincoln avenue. She attended the local schools, and after her graduation from Baldwin High School the family returned to Detroit.

Since that time she has made many victory appearances, and has been guest soloist of the Birmingham Musicals, as well. Among those from Birmingham who plan to be present at her Detroit appearance Tuesday evening will be Mesdames Herbert Gardner, Graham J. Graham, Mite W. Lind, Lewis B. Sappington, Earl Bartholomew, David Ballentine, E. R. Chapman, William Lloyd Kemp, Elmore Walling, George K. Averill, Arthur Wagley, Whitting Raymond, Ralph Corryell and Claire McQuinn. Several of the above named will be accompanied by guests, who will be eager to greet the former Birminghamite who has become such a national figure.

A newcomer in the battery field is small enough to fit into the palm of a hand, has a 100-mile reception range, full band selection and dial tuning.

Boynton-Thompson Wedding Dec. 28

Mr. and Mrs. Nehemiah Boynton, 11 have enjoyed their honeymoon in the East, where they enjoyed skiing on the slopes of the White Mountains, and are now making their home at Amherst, Mass.

The couple was married Dec. 28, at Christ Church, Cranbrook, by Dr. Charles Cadigan, against a background of white flowers and Christmas greens.

The bride, the former Dorothy Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thompson, was attended by Marilyn Spohr of Pleasant Ridge.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nehemiah Boynton, II, of Waban, Mass., was escorted by his best roommates, Robert Rest, Thompson, brother of the bride, Calvin Hill, brother-in-law of the groom, Charles Chittick and David Seaman, of Waban, seated the guests.
