Laurena Pringle, Detroit Columnist to Address AAUW

Due to the growth of membership of the Birmingham branch of the AAUW, a new system has been devised for those wishing to make luncheon reservations. This will take effect with the next meeting, which is scheduled for Wednesday, Jan. 14. Those who are planning to attend the luncheon are asked to contact leaders as follows:

Mrs. John M. Allman, phone 511-M for those whose last names fall in the bracket from A through E; Mrs. John A. Gilroy, phone 4235-W, from F through H; Mrs. E. J. Barney, 3320, for K through O; Mrs. George Finch, 3678, for through P and Mrs. John U. Eckenrode, 1247, for U through Z.

Members are asked to contact the leader in their group before 5 p. m. Sunday, to make reservations.

The meeting will feature a talk by Miss Laurena Pringle, popular columnist and women's editor of the Detroit Free Press. Miss Pringle will speak on "The Value of the Women's Clubs" and will describe the important parts they play in the life of today's woman.

Miss Pringle, who conducts the column, "Have You Heard . . . ?," was formerly a Detroit member of the Associated Press. Her years of newspaper work have given her a plain insight of what great parts clubs can play in community, state and national affairs.

Mrs. John M. Allman is chairman in charge of arrangements, with Miss Dorothy King and Mrs. Phillip Smith as hostesses. The meeting will be held at the Community House, with the luncheon to be served at 1 o'clock.

Carol Jean Grant's Troth Is Announced

The engagement of Carol Jean Grant to James Edwin Lee was announced Dec. 23 at an open house at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Grant, on Oakland avenue.

Carol Jean Grant

Miss Grant is a junior at Albion College where she is affiliated with Alpha Lambda Delta, scholastic sorority, and Alpha Chi Omega.

Mr. Lee, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Lee of Deetham, Mass., is now attending the Massachusetts Art School, after serving 18 months in the Army. The couple plans a summer wedding, after which they will live in Boston where Carol will attend Boston University.

Musical Program Features Trio of Detroit Musicians

The Birmingham Musicales program of Jan. 15 will feature the work of three well known Detroit musicians, Emily Mutter Adams, violinist, Rebecca Frohman, pianist and Jacob Becker, cellist. The program has been postponed from Jan. 5 to that date and will be presented in the Community House.

Mrs. Adams was born in Howell, Mich., and began studying violin at the age of four. Two years later her parents took her to Chicago for a year's study with the celebrated pedagogue, Ottakar Sivick.

She will play, during the musical program, the Symphonie Espagnole on Lalo, and two groups of solo numbers, with Rebecca Frohman at the piano.

The program will conclude with the Mandelstam Trio in D minor, in which the three musicians will appear together.

Mrs. Aron Bernitt is chairman of the day. The hostesses will be Mrs. George B. Finch, Mrs. Elmer Cove, Mrs. Hoyt Gilbert and Mrs. Shelton Wright. Mrs. Walter Skinner and Mrs. John Shiner have been named to the stage committee.

The tea committee will be headed by Mrs. J. Hogan, who will be assisted by Mrs. Robert Lynd, Mrs. John D. Maynard, Mrs. Arnold Braun and Mrs. Walter Anderson. Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. William Lloyd Kemp, Mrs. James Moon and Mrs. L. W. Robertson will preside at the tea tables.

Junior League to Meet This Evening With Mrs. D. L. Tate

The Junior League of the Birmingham Musicales will meet at the home of Mrs. D. L. Tate, counselor at 956 Westchester Way this evening at 7:30 p. m.

A business meeting will be held, after which the following program will be presented:

Cyril Scott's "Dance Nocturne" will be played by Ward Abbott at the piano. Don Garfield, accompanied by Mrs. John H. Abbott at the piano, will give a group of three vocal solos.

Mrs. Joseph Bennett of Pontiac will be the guest speaker and will talk of her hobby, the collection of bells. Her topic will be "Bells at Home and Abroad."
