Public Installation of Pythian Officers to Be Noted Jan. 9

A public ceremony will mark the installation of officers for the Birmingham Pythian Sisters which will be held on Jan. 9, in the Community House.

Mrs. Hazel Lawler is general chairman of the affair which will be held at 8 o'clock. She will be assisted by Mrs. William Kelly, Mrs. La Malice, Mrs. Fern Spotts, Mrs. Elizabeth Adams and Mrs. Della Wright as committee chairman.

Installing officers will be Mrs. Lawler, grand chief; Mrs. Kelly, grand senior, and Miss Anna Mary Adams, grand marshal. The deacons staff from City of Strata Temple in Detroit will be present to assist in the installation ceremony and will also present an exhibition drill.

A program is planned, which will feature James Richards as soloist, who will be accompanied by Herbert Rupp. Mr. Rupp will also play several piano selections. The A Cappella choir of Baldwin High School and a trumpet trio from the Junior high school will also be heard. Paula Paris, youthful Birmingham dancer and actress will give a specialty dance and will take part in the installation rites. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Swisher have announced the engagement of their daughter, Norma Jayne, to Clair M. Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nichols of Bowling Green, Ohio. The announcement was made at a family gathering held Christmas Eve at the Swisher home in Bloomfield Village.

The bride-elect is a student at Bowling Green State University which her fiancé also attended. The young couple plans a June wedding.

Carol Watt Names Date of Wedding

Carol Jean Watt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Watt of Yorkshire road, will become the bride of Alan Spencer Traugott, son of Mrs. Louis Traugott and the late Mr. Traugott of Indianapolis, Saturday afternoon. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. W. Glen Harris, at 3:30 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church here.

The bride will be attended by Mrs. Lawrence A. McDonald of Ann Arbor, as matron of honor; Miss Margaret Holmes Stanton as bridesmaid, and Miss Jocelyn Ann Watt as junior bridesmaid. Gene Watt will be best man, and the ushers will be David H. Strack of Lansing and James A. Cunningham of Indianapolis.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held for the wedding party at the Watt home.

Winter Wonderland Setting for Dance at Kingswood School

The Sophomores at Kingswood School Cranbrook are planning their "Winter Wonderland" dance for tomorrow evening, Jan. 9. The decoration committee—Julie O'Leary, Sally Selover, Mary Gristley and Harris Caswell—is transforming the gym into a wintry scene, complete with snowmen, an igloo in which recordings will be played and Northern Lights for illumination.

Dance selections are being made by Mary Moore and Cynthia Booth. Planning the assembly program for the dance are Dorothy Fulton, Marilyn Howlett and Norma Funston. Connie Teeter is inviting escorts.

Refreshments are in charge of Ann Paterson, Frijol Kurtz and Mervyn Anderson. Marilyn Scifley and Robin Squier are in charge of publicity.

Junior Women Plan Interesting Program

Betty Roberts will be the guest speaker when the Junior Department of the Birmingham Women's Club meets Jan. 12. She will speak on Guatemala, and will illustrate her lecture with motion pictures. The meeting will be held at the home of Miss Betty Bricker on 675 Bixendale road. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Doris Thomas and Mrs. Edward Andrews.

Present Day Club to Entertain Husbands

Members of the Present Day Club will entertain their husbands at their next meeting, which will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Krouse on Smith street Saturday.

A dinner will be served at 7 o'clock, after which an evening of entertainment will be enjoyed.

Mrs. Melvin Uppeleter, the chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Lucile Kidd, Mrs. John G. Gild, Harry Clark and Mrs. David Bleakley.

White Elephant Sale

The White Elephant sale of the Pi Beta Phi will feature the meeting and luncheon which they will hold at the home of Mrs. John Shiner of 865 Harmon road, Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Shiner will be assisted in her duties as hostess by Mrs. W. L. Schaffner and Mrs. Clifford Dunn.
