

Community House Adds 10 Lectures to Jan. Program

Lectures by five members of the educational staff of the Detroit Institute of Arts have been added to the January courses in adult education at the Community House. The art series, designed to make the art of outstanding periods more interesting and understandable to the average individual, will comprise ten lectures given each Tuesday evening from eight until nine. The lecturers will be Mrs. Joyce Black Gnaou, Miss Elizabeth H. Payne, Mrs. Margery Hogarty, Franklin Page and W. E. Woolfenden. The lectures on the arts supplement an adult education and craft program already expanded beyond the early winter schedule which attracted approximately 30 individuals. Subjects added to the program are also cover making, textile painting, painting and sketching, knitting, bridge, modern languages and speech. New sections have been added to the courses in ceramics, silver work and social dancing and ceramics classes for children in the fourth grade and above will be given on Saturday mornings. Registrations for all classes, which begin January 12, should be made at once at the Community House where information on fees may be obtained.

Thad's Feet Hurt

After a long, hard day's work on the farm, Thad's idea of how to spend an evening is to take off his shoes, and relax with a mellow glass of beer. But his misadventure has other ideas. After being in the house all day he's all for walking to the village, it's only for a soda. Likes to see people, catch the latest gossip. But Thad says, no, his feet hurt! Begin to cause unpleasantness in Thad's home. Then Bill Webster comes up with an idea. If Thad takes the misadventure

Andy's Garden Tavern. Thad can relax with his glass of beer, and the misadventure can also chat with all the neighbors there. Each gets his (or her) own way. World, too! In fact, now the misadventure has an occasional temperate glass of beer herself. And Thad finds it's pleasanter to enjoy his beer with good companions, rather than alone. In fact, his feet stopped hurting too!

Varsity Cagers Down Alumni by Score of 32-18

By Bill Robertson Coming back fast after a losing first half, Birmingham's 1948 varsity defeated an Alumni squad 32-18 Tuesday, Dec. 30, in the Baldwin gym. The Maples displayed a balanced attack with no individual star shining above the rest of the team. The scoring started slowly with the alumni unable to connect from the floor in the entire first half. However, the Maples had difficulty with their shots and left the floor at halftime leading 9-5. There was a complete transformation of the Varsity in the second half, and rapid-fire baskets by Bob Littleton, Bob Folin and Pat Wall sent the Maples far into the lead. A serious blow was dealt the varsity in the third quarter when Bob Folin, star forward, aggravated an ankle injury received in the pre-Christmas tourney games. It is hoped that Bob will recover in time to play the regularly scheduled games. Jack Moses capped the game's scoring honors with seven points for the alumni on three field goals and a free throw while Bob Littleton led the victors with six points.

20 Persons Escape Serious Injury in Hayride Accident

About 20 persons from Birmingham and vicinity, including several children and a 7-year-old grandmother, escaped death and injury in a holiday accident near here on Dec. 27. The C. E. Flemington family had hired a team and wagon to give the youngsters a thrill of an old-fashioned hay ride, and were traveling in the vicinity of Walnut Lake and Inkster roads about 6:30 when a car approached. The car, driven by George Crosby of 5875 Putnam road, Walnut Lake, was traveling on the wrong side of the road, and had but one headlight working, when it crashed into the team, witnesses reported. Her husband said that he felt possibly because they were so stunned, the team did not kick and struggle and made no attempt to bolt. That is all that saved us from a tragic accident.
