

Vows Solemized Saturday in Double Ring Rites

Gleaming white tapers, palms and white garden flowers were arranged before the altar of the First Methodist Church for the wedding of Eleanor Mary Whitney and Carl A. Olin, Jr., which was solemnized Saturday evening by the Rev. Arnold Rankin in a double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Whitney of Royal Oak, formerly of Birmingham and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Olin, Sr., of Gray Court, Birmingham.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned from candlelight satin with a sweetheart neckline and fitted bodice. The sleeves extended in traditional points over her hands and her full skirt swept into a circular train. A seed pearl tiara held her fingertip veil and she carried a crescent bouquet of white gladioli and ivy in the center of which were peruvian daffodils. She wore a sapphire necklace, a gift of the groom.

A childhood friend of the bride, Mrs. Thomas Fox of Birmingham served as bridesmaid. They wore gowns of turquoise taffeta with matching gauntlets and halos of turquoise net. Their bouquets consisted of salmon colored gladioli and ivy.

Sandra De Merchant, niece of the bride, was flower girl in a pink floor length taffeta dress with matching gauntlets and a pink net halo on her head. Her miniature crescent bouquet was of white gladioli and ivy.

Robert W. Whitney, brother of the bride served as best man. Thomas Fox and Donald E. Whitney, another brother of the bride acted as ushers.

Mrs. Whitney wore an aqua crepe dinner gown with a pink straw hat and a corsage of pink carnations for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Olin chose a chartreuse gown with lavender larkspur corsage.

Following a reception in the church parlors, Mr. and Mrs. Olin left for the Muskoka lake region in Canada. Mrs. Olin wore an aqua suit with a burnt colored straw hat and a corsage of peruvian daffodils for the trip.

Assisting at the reception were Miss Edith Smith of Detroit; Miss Katherine Lancaster of Pleasant Ridge; Miss Lane Murphy and Mrs. Charles Libbey of Royal Oak.

Out of town guests for the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stevenson of London, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. P. Hutchison and their sons, Malcolm and Harold from Mt. Vernon, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. B. Gaston and their daughter, Karen, also of Mt. Vernon, Ill.; Mrs. Edward Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morgan of Chicago, Ill.
