Memorie Upper Becomes Bride of Robert C. Rich

Baskets of white gladioli decorated the altar of the Lutheran Fellowship Church Saturday evening when Memorie Mae Upper and Robert Clarence Rich exchanged vows in a candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren P. Upper of Greenlawn avenue and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence D. Rich of Longfellow avenue, Detroit.

Rev. Lester W. Sperberg of Denver, a brother-in-law of Mr. Rich, officiated at the service. Miss Upper wore a traditional white satin dress trimmed with lace and fashioned with a draped apron effect which tied in a large bow in the back. Her full skirt fell into a short train and her fingertip veil was held by a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Donald W. Main of Jackson attended her sister as matron of honor in a soft peach taffeta gown cut along the same lines as the bride's. She wore a matching tulle hat and carried tallman roses and peruvian lilies.

The bridesmaids, Dorothy Rich, a sister of the bride, and Muriel Lockrow wore soft yellow taffeta dresses and matching tulle hats fashioned after Mrs. Main's. Their flowers were also bouquets of tallman roses and peruvian lilies.

Young Susan Wheaton, a niece of the bride, led the procession down the aisle in a peach taffeta dress with a hoop skirt and tulle bonnet. She carried a basket of rose petals.

William W. Rich served as his brother's best man and seated the guests were Thomas Brandt, Archibald McLean, George Donaldson, Jr., brother-in-law of the bride.

Jack Upper of Detroit and a cousin of the bride sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because". For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Upper chose a powder blue floor length gown, a tulle hat trimmed with roses and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Rich wore a brown floor length dress edged with brown lace and a cream colored orchid corsage.

Following the reception which was held at the church, the young couple left on a wedding trip to northern New York. Upon their return, they will make their home on Joy road.

Oakland Hills Plans Gala Fourth Weekend

Oakland Hills Country Club is planning a gala July 4 week end. Besides contests for the best score for 18 holes of golf in a two-day play with half handicaps on July 3 and 4, there will be swimming contests for children of all ages on Monday, July 5.

do you have a "garden of eatin'?"

YOU HAVE? Fortunate you; for the days are here again when friends will gather around to enjoy that simple, all too rare pleasure of outdoor eating. And even when it's "just the family" there's a zest, unacquainted in outdoor cooking and then partaking of good food in a well equipped "garden of eatin'."

Someone once said the difference between a good meal and a poor one is: "Wait a little longer."

Poor chap, probably no one ever introduced him to outdoor eating when appetites are just bound to be keener, and when good food tastes especially good.

Well, anyway, for that "garden of eatin'" of yours we have some outdoor things which will heighten even more the pleasure of it all!
