Her bridal bouquet was composed of white orchids which were flown here from Honolulu, the gift of a friend, Mrs. Ben Ouchal of Detroit who is visiting in Hawaii.

Destructive forest fires rank with other great calamities of history which include floods, pestilence, famine, and earthquakes—and, like them, are soon forgotten.

A campfire is essential to cooking and a pleasant time—but let it get away and it is a devil on the rampage destroying everything in its path.

The usual cause of forest fires is plain carelessness—for there no longer can be the claim of ignorance by campers, hunters, fishermen, and motorists in general.
