Lathrup Village News
By LILLIAN DIEDERICH

Grace Lucile Harris will be married to Alfred Brisebois at an eight o'clock ceremony Friday, July 16, in the Woodward Avenue Congregational church, Detroit. The bride is the step daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Gaiser of Detroit, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brisebois of this village.

The bride has chosen a grey suit dress with a grey nylon hat for her wedding and she will carry a colonial bouquet of white stephanotis centered with a removable white orchid. Phyllis Cregan will attend the bride. Her gown will be navy blue crepe with pink accessories. She will have a colonial bouquet of pink roses. Jack Brisebois will serve his brother as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held in Inleisure club after which the couple will motor north. They will reside on Lakeview avenue on their return.

On Thursday evening Mrs. Brisebois gave a miscellaneous shower for the bride-to-be and on Friday evening Jack Brisebois was host at a stag for his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vint of Sunset boulevard, and granddaughter Barbara Gaydos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gaydos of Huntington Woods, returned last week from a motor trip through the east. They visited Boston, New York, Providence, Washington, and Philadelphia.

Pattie Bloom, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad T. Bloom of Athone Place, Sew to Minneapolis last week to visit her grandmother, Mrs. Simons. She will be away a month.

The Robert C. Stegers of San Diego boulevard have returned from a motor trip up north. They also took home their house guest Mrs. Evelyn Sprague who resides in Illinois. They visited the Karl Doerans who were vacationing at Drummond Island and enjoyed the Wisconsin Dells on their extensive motor trip. The Doerans are at home now after several weeks vacationing at O-Mah-Me-Kong Lodge, Drummond Isle. Their sons, Paul, Bruce and Ralph are at O-Hiyasa Camp, Holly, for two weeks.

Several Boy Scouts left Sunday for Camp Brady for a two weeks' stay, including: Kenneth La Barge, John Bishop, Edward Beyma, Thomas Beyma, Ned Weaver.

Herbert Schreiber, Butch Hieberer and Bob Mason.

John Elias, with Del Arrants of Detroit, are vacationing at Mount Royal hotel, Montreal and Chateau Frontenac hotel in Quebec. On their return journey they will skirt the eastern coastline stopping off at Bar Harbor.

The George Burnhams of Glenwood boulevard have been visiting at Bad Axe. Mrs. Hull, Mrs. Burnham's mother, was there for six weeks and returned with them.

A dinner for 10 guests was given Thursday evening by the Guy Poppitts of Sarasota boulevard, who have several California house guests visiting them.

A caravan of cars with 25 College Career members motored Sunday to spend the day at P. F. Peck's summer home at Taylor Lake. The day was spent swimming, fishing, and sailing. On Thursday evening Ray Howard was host to the regular meeting at his home. Plans for the group for the summer months were discussed.

Mrs. Leroy Cline and daughter Barbara, spent several days last week at Higgins Lake visiting Barbara's aunt.

The John Diederichs gave a supper party for 10 guests Sunday evening in their gardens honoring Mrs. Maurice Miller of Detroit, who is moving to St. Petersburg, Fla., the last of July.
