DOSTER—Sited along the shores of Pine Lake, 12 miles north of Kalamazoo and adjacent to this Barry County village, is one of the most unique educational institutions for war veterans in the entire United States.

Here is a veritable "dream spot," the sort of thing a young man overseas might conjure in his imagination but never expect to see.

It is a practical emblem of Michigan's generosity to its sons who served the Nation in World War II.

We refer to the Michigan Veterans' Vocational School, operated by the State of Michigan and administered by the Western Michigan College of Education at Kalamazoo.

We arrived at the Pine Lake school, as it is generally called, just as dinner was being served in the long administration building.

Windows of the dining hall overlook the sky-blue waters of Pine Lake. The scene is that of a summer resort rather than a

Ross, printing instructor, served in the Canadian Air Force.

We became interested in the story of "Ike" Permelia, a Negro double amputee.

"Ike" served in the Signal Corps for five years. While on combat duty in Germany, he lost both hands.

City of London Seal Used by Localite in Rain Cape Label

Mrs. Alice Middleton McDougall of Walnut Lake has designed a rain cape, called the London Bobby Cape, which is now ready to be put on the market for the first time.

The label on these caps bears the coat of arms of London, a seal exclusive with Mrs. McDougall.
