

Miss Walsh Feted at Personal Shower

On Wednesday night Jo Anne Westberry and Jean Gibbs were co-hostesses at a personal shower for bride-elect Ginny Walsh at the Gibbs home on Beachwood road. Among the guests were Mrs. Ralph Wilson, Betty Mann, Ele-nor Fernie, Doris Huffman, Shirley Coons, Susie Woodhull, Rita Pearson, Betty Corsi, Nancy Carrick, Dorothy Stewart, Cherry Lee Kaezerman, Ida Martin, Marguerite Kurth, Amy Wild, Nell Wakefield, Muriel Lockrow, Memorie Yezer, Gere Uppinger, Lolly Walsh, Martha Marshall, Mildred Lowe, Mary Jane Welch, Patsy Moody, Jane Hardin, Ruth Watson and Pat Ransom.

Save the Children Federation Tea

On June 12, from 3:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., the Save the Children Federation will hold its English tea party in the garden of Mrs. Albert Clark on East Long Lake road and Adams road.

Three well known couples will be present for the occasion. They are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller; the British Consul, H. D. Brickell and his wife; and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Fredericks. Mr. Fredericks is the sculptor who donated the plaque which has been on display at the Little Folk's Shop.

Also, a group of seven Pontiac high school girls who are known as the Aimee group of girls and who have adopted a French girl, Josette Muckle, will be present in old fashioned costumes to lend atmosphere and an old English charm to the event. They are Roberta Van Welt, Sue Baer, Nancy Baldwin, Joanne and Ellen Harrison, Joan Hawisher and Carolyn Kimball. A style show accentuating garden costumes, a Punch and Judy show in costume which will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Goodremont and their daughter, and an accordionist, Ann Perkins, will be the highlights of the entertainment.

Mrs. Rudolph Esch, 740 Fairfax road, is ticket chairman.

Fine Arts Picnic

The Fine Arts Department of the Birmingham Woman's Club will meet for a picnic potluck luncheon at noon on Tuesday, June 15, at the home of Mrs. William O. Merrill on Long Lake road. Programs for the coming year are to be planned at this time. The group will also get a preview of what is in store for Birmingham and vicinity when the Straw Hat Theatre at Will-O-Way opens its summer season on Tuesday, June 29.

Doris Protheroe Feted at Shower

Miss Doris Protheroe was the honor guest at a luncheon and miscellaneous shower at the Orchard Lake Country Club last Friday evening.

She will become the bride of Waverly Ellsworth of Buffalo, N. Y., on June 29. Miss Protheroe is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Protheroe of Hanna street.

Hostesses for the shower were Mesdames Walter Anderson, Bryan Rich and Hugh McLessee.

Announce Troth

Mrs. Frances H. Griffin, 1530 Webster street, announces the engagement of her daughter, Marjorie, to Robert C. Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rogers of Berkley, Mich. There are no immediate plans for the wedding.

Newcomers' Club to Meet June 17

Last Saturday night the Newcomers' Club held its "Cotton Frolic" at the Community House. Here more than 50 couples gathered to dance to the music of Don Preston's band while Bill McManus acted as master of ceremonies.

The change-parties—dances which became more popular as the evening progressed, gave the Newcomers and their friends ample opportunity to become acquainted through informal introductions. The novelty dances included a Cinderella dance, London Brigades and a Paul Jones. A community sing of old and new popular bal-
