Miss Clara Nicol Tells Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dwight Nicol of Bloomfield Hills yesterday announced the engagement of their daughter, Clara Childs, to Alfred Cleon Moore, son of Mrs. Alfred Cleon Moore of Centreville, Miss., and the late Mr. Moore.

Miss Nicol is a graduate of Kingswood School Cranbrook and attended Sweet Briar College. She is a member of the Junior League and for a year toured the country as a member of the cast of the Claret Tree Major Children's Theatre. She also was stage manager of the Detroit Dramatic Guild.

Mr. Moore is a graduate of Mississippi State College where he was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. During the war he served as a first lieutenant with the Coast Artillery Corps and is now with the Sun Oil Company in Beaumont, Texas. No date has been set for the wedding.

The Henry Watsons Celebrate Silver Wedding Anniversary

June 5 was the date of a buffet supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Steffy of Chicago for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Watson on the lawn of the Watson home on West Frank street. The occasion was the Watsons' silver anniversary.

Miss Dorothy Jackson, also of Frank street, assisted Mrs. Steffy with the arrangements. An anniversary cake and punch topped off the supper. Among the 50 guests were friends and relatives from Birmingham, Ann Arbor, Ferndale, Detroit and Windsor. Also present was the Watsons' son, Roland, a student at Purdue University.

The announcement has come from Bradford Junior College, Bradford, Mass., that four Birmingham girls were graduated from the school on June 7. They are Linda Gnan, daughter of Mrs. Frederick H. Gasow of Coolidge avenue; Dorothea Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon F. Hess of Wellesley road; Judith Loud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy E. Loud of Dorchester road, and Mary E. Welch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Welch, Jr., of Tarnouth road.
