Palmer-Sidway Vows Read in Evening Garden Ceremony

The marriage of Mary Jane Sidway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sidway of Wing Lake road to Arthur Walden Palmer, Jr., of Cranbrook School took place yesterday evening in the garden of the bride's home with Rev. W. Brooke Stabler officiating.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walden Palmer of Haverford, Pa.

Miss Sidway was gowned in her maternal grandmother's wedding dress of brocaded ivory satin with a fitted bodice; an off the shoulder neckline trimmed with a wide hertha of Duchess lace, long sleeves and a full skirt which was cut into a long train. A Duchess lace cap with a halo of lace held her illustrious veil. She carried gardenias and lily of the valley.

The bride's four attendants were gowned alike in aqua faille with a navy starched lace picture hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of white orchids.

Wynema Reuter, sister of the groom, was the only attendant. She wore a pale green gabardine suit with a navy hat and accessories. Her corsage was of Rhibrum lilies.

Glenn Marrott of Chicago served as best man and Bernard Reuter, seated the guests.

A reception was held on the lawn of the bride's father's home after the ceremony.

After a short wedding trip through eastern Canada, the young couple will be at home to their friends at 237 North Wood-ward avenue.

Out-of-town wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. Reuter of Toledo, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. John Knott of Hills, Mich.; and Mrs. George Weisner of Lake Geneva, Wis.; Mrs. Covert Wildis and her husband, Mr. Ernest of Pontiac; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reuter and daughter, Wynema, and Glenn Marrott, all of Chicago.

with a fold across the front forming cap sleeves and a matching net neck insert and long, full skirts. Barbara Needles, maid of honor, carried a bouquet of yellow roses, carnations and gladioli tied with a matching bow. The bridesmaids, Edith Williams, Jane Cade of Lansing and Martha M. Newell of Arvada, Colo., carried bouquets of Better Times roses, rose carnations and gladioli held by matching bows.

Flower girl Christine Myers wore a sateen dress with a light bodice and skirt caught up over a net ruffled skirt with rose buds. Her flowers were sweetheart roses.

Mr. Palmer acted as best man for his son and the ushers were Fred Campbell, Louis Graf, Axel Magnuson, all of Cranbrook school, and Peter Sidway, a brother of the bride.

For her daughter's marriage Mrs. Sidway chose a powder blue chiffon gown with an orchid. Mrs. Palmer selected a black lace dress trimmed with magenta and an orchid corsage.

A reception was held at the Sidway home following the ceremony.

For her going away costume, Mrs. Palmer wore a sheer navy ensemble with a navy hat accented with bright flowers, matching shoes and handbag.

The young couple will be at home at Cranbrook School after September 15.

Out-of-town guests who attended the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walden Palmer of Haverford, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Spitzmiller, grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Spitzmiller, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sidway, all of Buffalo, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Newell of Arvada, Col.

CLASS of 1948

To be graduated this year from school, college or university means that the graduate will face a very challenging world — a world such as will require much in ability, courage and character. It seems to us, therefore, that this year's graduates deserve the utmost in encouragement and those assurances of staunch friendship which, long after the graduate has been handed his or her diploma, will be recalled with bracing satisfaction. The knowledge that there are friends who can be counted on, if need be, means much.

When your assurance is made vocal with a LaBelle gift it helps greatly to make yours an unforgettable expression of such friendship!
