Cranbrook, Kingswood Graduation Held Saturday at Christ Church

Saturday morning at 11 o'clock the graduating class of Cranbrook School received their diplomas at an impressive ceremony at Christ Church Cranbrook.

Graduating with cum laude honors were Benjamin Bennett, Clay Doss, Daniel Ellsberg, Dudley Emmell, Arthur Hartinian, Jo Isaacson, Andrew Jackson, James McLaughlin, Lauren Otis, Malcolm Pennington, Robert Roensch, Burt Winterfeld and Stanley Zemon.

The other members of the class receiving their diplomas from W. Brooke Stabler, headmaster of Cranbrook School, were Donald Baldwin, John Ballantyne, Norman Berry, John Birm, Randall Booth, Norman Bowman, Chauncey Burke, Jr., Michael Carey, Robert Carter, Joseph Cohran, Langdon Crane, Harry Cromer, Kent Culbertson.

More Graduates

Peter Mackersie, Harry Martens, Michael Mooney, Peter Moore, Charles Morton, Peter Northrup, John Peirsol, Nelson Rieger, Bruce Smith, Milton Smith, Laird Stabler, Charles Stadler, Eldred Steinmann, David Taylor, Frederick Uhlig, Kenneth Wright and James Wysong.

Certificates for post graduate work were awarded Cesar Braszini, Miles Durfey, Thomas Herbert, Warren McCabe, Donald Moyer, Peter Sidway and Henry Webster.

Clay Doss was presented the citizenship award of the school and the scholarship award for work in the fifth and sixth forms went to Dan Ellsberg. The book award presented by the alumni of Trinity College for citizenship and service was awarded Lauren Otis.

Prospects for Careers

Rev. Charles H. Cadigan, Rector of Christ Church, Cranbrook pronounced the invocation and the graduation address was made by Dr. Lewis Perry, principal emeritus, Phillips Academy, Exeter, N. H. whose topic was "A Layman Looks at His World". During his discussion of world affairs, he outlined prospects of careers for graduates and suggested they dare to do something different and not follow the general pattern of thinking, using as a guide visions of a future fit for man.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Walter H. Young, chaplain of Cranbrook School and the concluding benediction was offered by the Right Reverend Richard S. M. Emrich, Bishop of Michigan.

At 3 o'clock the 59 members of the graduating class of Kingswood School Cranbrook received their diplomas from Miss Margaret A. Angur, headmistress of Kingswood School at Christ Church Cranbrook.

Vassar President Speaks

Following the processional hymn, Rev. Robert W. Anthony, assistant minister of Christ Church Cranbrook, offered the invocation. Miss Sarah Gibson Blanding, president of Vassar college, gave the address citing the opposing significance of graduation and commencement.

The theme of her address was that graduates should be more concerned with "What will I give the next few years?" rather than "What will the next few years give me?". It was her opinion that democracy should be practiced as well as preached, and to preserve a heritage it is necessary to build it anew.

She advocated use of the mind as a continuing development of mental power and an aid to understanding and good judgment. "Take a vigorous stand for what you consider just right", she said. "Be true to the large things of life".

The president of the senior class, Joan Patten, presented the school flag to her successor and benediction was given by Rev. Charles H. Cadigan, of Christ Church Cranbrook.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

Hi, everyone!

This has been a weekend of parties and excitement. Starting Friday night, the Tri-A's gave a progressive dinner in honor of their seniors, Barbara Kelley, Jo Olson, Mary Ann Wilkinson, Laura Lou Raymond and Evelyn Fairbanks.

The last course at Nancy Fisher's ended with a farewell song. Present were Sue Manning, Judy Thomas, Priscilla Martz, Janet Mills, Ginny Carter and Betty Vaile.

Kern McKay held the first senior party at her home later that evening. Between bites of delicious sandwiches and cups of punch there was time for singing while Steve Campbell played.

Around the Piano

Gathered around the piano were Mary Lou Mulholland, Marilyn Davey, Fred Pew, Jo Dasher, Tim Adams, Joan Protheroe, Ann Wright, John Chantler, Barbara Cox, Jo Linn, Hap Roehorcop, Anne Lundberg, Mary Gilchrist, George Allen, Joe O'Donnell, Bill Plant, Sally Roseberry, and Stan Smith.

Emerald Key gave a lovely lawn dance the same night. Seen dancing under colored lights were Sally Smith, Fred Mallender, Roberta Connor, Pete Abbrecht, Eloise Fowler, Henry Muller, Ginny Dare, Pete Hartsuff.

Tea for Senior Girls

Oh, no, that is not all; Sunday afternoon Giner Reinhart and Peggy Gould gave a tea for the senior girls and senior advisers.

Present were Cynthia Harrison, Sally Scott, Marion McDonald, Nancy Laning, Marion Adams, Anne Allison, Elizabeth Hanna.

Others enjoying themselves were Judy Pardee, Mary Stringer, Beverly Brennan, Margo Baker, Jo Connor and Ginny O'Brien.

With hopes that there will be as much fun next week, Annie will close now and go on skip day.

Baldwin C. T. A. Club Names Officers

The C. T. A. Club held its weekly meeting last Friday night at the Community House. The graduating members left early to attend a party given in honor of the seniors. They are Giner Reinhart, Mary Stringer, Jeannot Barnes, Carol Peterson, Margy Gilchrist, Barb Strehlow, Arlayne Brown, Patty Davis, Julie Harrigan, Evelyn Holding, Marion MacDonald, Peggy Gould, Barb Kennedy, Sally Roseberry, Sally Scott, Jo Dasher, Sue Hastreiter, Marilyn Davey and Phyllis Brenkert.

Congratulations were also in store for Barb Hughes who had just been elected secretary of the Student Congress at Baldwin High School. She was also recently elected president of the C. T. A.

Other new officers of the club are vice-president, Mary Kemp; treasurer, Nancy Jacobi; recording secretary, Margi Vose and corresponding secretary, Nan Mosby.

Senior Picture Contract Awarded

The senior picture contract for the coming year has been signed with Arnold Studios with the agreement that the pictures will be essentially the same as in previous years with the usual standard prices.

The decision was made by a committee composed of two members from each 11-A and 12-B homeroom with E. A. Hubbard acting as chairman of the group.

The contract was also approved by Miss Vida McGiffin, publications advisor.

Track Team to Be Honored by Moms, Dads

By Peg Thompson

Birmingham's multiple championship track squad will be honored by the moms and dads next Wednesday evening with the annual track banquet to be given at the Evangelical Lutheran church on West Maple.

Heading workers is James M. Anderson, general chairman. Clever decorations and place cards are being planned by Mrs. Charles Booth, Mrs. Stanley Boynton, Mrs. James M. Anderson, and Mrs. Charles E. McGinnis.

A committee headed by Mrs. H. R. Abbrecht is in charge of invitations and tickets. Members assisting are Mrs. Norman D. Vershure and Mrs. W. P. Hickman. Miss Vida McGiffen is in charge of programs and publicity for the event.

Speaking at the banquet will be Ross A. Wagner, principal; Dwight B. Ireland, superintendent of schools; Frank Whitney, athletic director; Lloyd A. Cooper, Birmingham track coach; Charles McGinnis, representing the track squad dads; and Bob Littleson, team captain.

The "Bucky" Zoellin memorial trophy will be presented by Harold Gasser since Fred J. Zoellin is unable to make the presentation because he will be out of town that week end attending Indiana University commencement exercises in Bloomington, Ind., where his son Fred is graduating.

Audience Enjoys Barnum Operetta Last Thursday

By Milly Chapman and Ann Welch

A capacity audience enthusiastically received Barnum junior high school's annual operetta presented last Thursday evening. This year's production was "In Gay Havana," a humorous satire with a Cuban air.

The cast was well chosen and each interpreted his part excellently. The large colorfully costumed choruses with the good scenery and lighting added much to the Cuban effect.

Credit for the successful direction of the operetta is shared by Victor Ulrich, vocal music director, and Miss Lyla McCormick, who coached speaking parts.

Make-up for the operetta was done by a group of Baldwin girls.

The 18 girls did make-up for 90 people in one hour under the guidance of Miss Janet Bainbridge.

Plans for Annual 'Big 5' Dance Are Under Way

Plans for the annual Big 5 dance honoring the graduating seniors for June 18 at the Community House are underway.

Emerald Key, a comparatively new club, is in charge of publicity and finding the place. The committee includes Carol Miller and Sally Smith, chairman; Marion Craig, Delores Beasnon, Barbara Strehlow, and Frances Ritner.

Tiara club's duties are refreshments, being handled by Cynthia Hadley and Carolyn Abbott; and chaperons by Judy Henderson and Helen Hemming.

Tri-A will secure the band. Sarah Breitenstein, chairman, Judy Pardee, Margaret Vose and Joanne Laucomer are making the decision. Nancy Fisher is handling clean-up.

Frances Ritner and Norma Lee Kass, Sapphire Club, will manage programs and tickets.

Barbara Hughes, C.T.A., and her committee, Mary Kemp, Peg Thompson, Sarah Breitenstein, Lois Davidson, will plan decorations.
