Marion Batty Weds Robert L. Martin in Utica, New York

Marion Goldthwaite Batty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Coulston Batty of Utica, N. Y., became the bride of Robert Lyle Martin in an afternoon ceremony at Trinity Episcopal church in Utica on Saturday.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ellsworth Martin, 815 Oakland avenue, Birmingham.

Rev. Stanley Gasek, assisted by Dr. Lowell Ditzon, read the service.

The bride's gown was of heirloom ivory satin. Her fingertip veil fell from a headpiece of Duchesse lace which was also used to trim the veil. She carried a corsage of white roses and stephanotis.

Elizabeth Batty acted as her sister's maid of honor. Mrs. John Kirkwood Martin of Ferndale and Jeanne Bonafant of Utica, N. Y., were bridesmaids. They were matching gowns of pale green chiffon in an off the shoulder design and carried bouquets of red and yellow roses.

John Kirkwood Martin of Ferndale, was his brother's best man. The ushers were Phillip Dibble of Birmingham; James Field of Huntington Woods; Norman Batty, Jr., of Utica and Phillip Oxley of Orangeburg, N. Y.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Batty wore a floor length gown of rose crepe and a corsage of yellow orchids. Mrs. Martin chose a sea blue chiffon dress. Her corsage was also of yellow orchids.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the bride's home.

After a wedding trip to the Homestead in Hot Springs, Va., the young couple will reside at their new home in Pleasant Ridge, Mich.

Pictures submitted for publication in The Eccentric must be received at the editorial office NO LATER than Friday noon of the week preceding the issue in which the picture is to appear.

The Record Corner
says of the 1948 Graduates:
They should have music wherever they go. Whether on to college, into the business world or into homes of their own, music will fill a certain spot in their daily lives. It will offer them hours of relaxation and pleasure.
Be sure and give records this June. See and hear single records or albums of classical, semi-classical and popular tunes.
