Remember Dad ON HIS DAY Remember when you were goggle-eyed about that new bike — life wouldn't be worth living if you couldn't have it! — Or you just had to have that new formal? Chances are Dad had been saving for a set of golf clubs. Who won? Ten to one you did! Remember how he worried when you had the measles and whooping cough? How much sleep he lost when you had your best girl out in the family car? Have you told him lately what he means to you? That if it weren't for him you probably wouldn't amount to a row of pins? This is the time for you to show your appreciation for his thoughtfulness and sacrifices (something you should do all year 'round, but being human, have neglected.) May we suggest a small bedside radio with which he can relax? Or a battery operated portable radio for the ball games and other favorite programs while he's working or just lolling in the garden? We have them from $14.95 up.
