Boys to Spend
Two Months in Spain, France

C. Thoburn (Toby) Maxwell of Wing Lake and his guest Fortunato E. (Lucky) Quesada of Lima, Peru, and recently of Quebec where he attended Laval University, will sail for France next Wednesday, June 23, from New York City, on the S.S. Ernie Pyle. The boys will spend a few days in the Normandy battlefields before going to Paris. They will travel on to Madrid and Seville and return to southern France where they will visit young Quesada's relatives in Decazeville. They will visit friends in Geneva and spend some time in Switzerland before going to London where they will attend the Olympic games for two weeks and witness the final ceremonies. They will sail for home from Southampton late in August. Toby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip G. Fretz of Wing Lake, Birmingham.

To Open Summer
Drama School Here

Lyla McCormick and Randall Garrison will open their summer school of dramatics at 298 South Woodlawn next Tuesday morning at 9:30. They will maintain classes for children in dramatics, technical training and puppetry. The technical instruction will include lighting, stagecraft, make-up and scenery. Puppetry will give basic training in the making and manipulation of them, from the viewpoint of presenting short plays.

Give Shower

Mrs. A. G. Liddicoat and Mrs. Robert Binder were co-hostesses in Mrs. Liddicoat's Brenton drive, Detroit home at a shower Saturday. The party was in honor of Aileen Watson of Penbrooke drive who will marry Edwin E. Lau on August 21.
