

LAMPSHADES FOR THE PORCH
FROM
IMPORTED WOVEN GRASS CLOTH
 Ideal with bamboo, wicker or pottery lamps.
 Practical, durable, artistic.
MADE TO ORDER FROM STOCK NOW
ON HAND
RUTH HAIGH
 195 Pierce Phone 429

A Little Money Goes A Long Way

the IVY shop
 1946 LIVERNOIS AVENUE
 Just north of Outer Drive
 UNIVERSITY 4-5082

Wanona's. Wonderful blankets in lovely pastel shades; $8.95; $9.95.
 Satin damask 2 yd. cloths with 8 napkins; ivory, green, gray, peach, and gold; $17.95.
 Spun rayon 52" luncheon squares, 4 napkins (launder easily and well); floral prints; $7.50.
 Quilted chintz card table covers; $3.00.
 Pure linen guest towels, soft patches; $1.00.
 Spaghetti and Barbecue bibs; $1.00 each.
 Nurse's and Maid's uniforms and aprons.

Married Friday at Lutheran Church

Patricia Florence DeVault and Dale William Simmerman were united in marriage Friday evening at the English Lutheran Church of the Redeemer. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess E. DeVault of Birmingham and New Baltimore and he is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Dale Simmerman of New Baltimore.

Elizabeth Brodie of Pontiac served as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Sandra Da Sef, Barbara Scott, Jessica Waldren of Schenectady, N. Y., and Barbara Bettehelm of Bronxville, N. Y.

Nancy Strouss, niece of the bridegroom, served as flower girl. Louis W. Pingel of Omaha was best man and acting the guests were Charles Barlow of Detroit; Floyd Strauch, William DeVault and Spencer DeVault.

The reception was held at the Oakland Hills Country Club following the ceremony.

St. Anne's Guild

A dessert luncheon on June 22 at the Oakland Hills Country Club is being planned by Mrs. Howard Cousins and Mrs. E. C. Hoenicke for members of St. Anne's Guild of St. James Episcopal Church.

Special music will be provided by Mrs. William Hohmeyer on the violin. She will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Louella Elder.

MARKLEY YARN NOOK
 227 Pierce St.

Wishes to announce a new shipment of needle cases, knitting bags and shrink-resistant yarns.

McCobb-Bostwick Vows Read at Monday Afternoon Ceremony

Miss Martha Kathleen Bostwick exchanged vows with James Edward McCobb at a four o'clock ceremony in the Central Methodist Church, Detroit, on Monday.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Milo M. Bostwick of Pilgrim road and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clyde McCobb of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Mrs. James E. McCobb

Dr. Henry Hitt Crane performed the ceremony before an altar banked with baskets of gladioli, peonies and candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a camellia white satin gown with a sweetheart neckline embroidered with seed pearls. Seed pearls also trimmed the gown at the waist. The full skirt was fashioned over a hoop that fell into a cathedral length train. Her veil of silk illusion was held in place by a satin Juliet cap.

She carried a corsage of white orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Her sister, Virginia Bostwick, served as maid of honor in a gown of Williams blue faille with a portrait neckline, deep bertha and full skirt. Ribbon streamers decorated her large leghorn hat, and she carried a bouquet of light yellow carnations and ivy.

The bridesmaids, Jane Walser and Jane Breitenstein, both of Birmingham, wore gowns identical to those of the maid of honor. Their hats were halos of fabric to match their dresses and they carried salmon pink carnations and ivy.

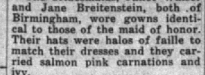

Donald McCobb, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man and seating the guests were H. Monroe Taliaferro, Jr. of Grand Rapids; John I. Butterfield of Nashville, Tenn.; William Howell of Midland, Pa.; and Thomas C. McCobb, II, of Southport, Conn.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Bostwick wore a suit of ivory sheer wool with cocoa brown accessories. A spray of bronze orchids was on her corsage. Mrs. McCobb chose a suit of soft grey wool and her flowers were dusty pink.

A reception was held at the Bostwick home following the ceremony.

For her wedding trip to Chicago, Mrs. McCobb selected a brown and white silk bride dress with brown accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

The young couple will make their home in Ann Arbor.

Carolae Sproull

At a small cocktail party in their home on Shirley Drive Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Sproull announced the engagement of their daughter, Carolae Elizabeth, to Hubert James "Mike" Quinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert John Quinn of Oak Street.

The announcement came as a surprise to the group of intimate friends who had been invited to the Sproull home for a farewell party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Mosby. The Mosbys, with their family, will drive this week to Wyoming for a month of ranch life.

Miss Sproull attended Baldwin high school and the University of Kansas for two years.

Her fiancé was graduated from Oliver Military Academy and attended Michigan State College where he was affiliated with Psi Upsilon fraternity. During the war he served as an infantry lieutenant in the Pacific theater.

There are no immediate plans for the wedding.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert James Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lawlor, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mosby, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Cudlip, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wellman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bising, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Whiteley, Mr. John Lumbum and Mr. Richard Burns of Cleveland, Ohio.

Baldwin Class of '23 Meets for Its 25th Anniversary

The Baldwin high school class of '23 celebrated its silver anniversary with a dinner at the Community House on June 11.

Clarence Vliet, former superintendent of schools, Mrs. W. and Miss Chloe Hardy, class advisor, were present as the guests of honor. They also gave brief talks.

Twenty-six of the original 53 members attended the reunion. It was noted that three of the prophecies had come true. Milton Mallerder is now mayor of Birmingham, W. J. Burkinman is a doctor and Bob Shave, a golfer, all as predicted.

Mallerder, class president, officiated as master of ceremonies. Other class officers seated at the banquet table were Elsie Anderson, Ray Mallerder, vice-president; William Story, treasurer and Francis Pasarell, Gilliam.

Each member of the class gave a resume of what he or she had done since graduation. "The former quartette composed of Clark Hallock, Charleton DeLong, Ernest Masfield and Milton Mallerder, accompanied by Claire Gillett McQueen, found that they could still harmonize after all these years.

Other members present were Thomas Campbell, Theima McQuarter Owen, Maurice Carter, Eunice Parks Smith, Clinch Crocker, Virginia Hupp Moss, Warren Reid, Helen Ross, Dr. N. Weir Burkinman, Grace Nixon Stevens, Florence Bingham, Grace Harrison Wilson, Lloyd Smith, Genevieve Wahl, Maurice Pederson, Beulah Keddy, Marion Dixon, Mark Smith and Maurice Haven.

Kirk in the Hills Women's Group Plans Luncheon on June 22

The Women's Association of Kirk in the Hills Church is planning a bridge luncheon June 22 at 12:30 p.m. in Mayans, 856 North Woodward.

Assisting Mrs. Hester McDougall, chairman of the affair and Mrs. Reginald Smith, co-chairman, are Mrs. Herbert Stacey, Mrs. Donald Thomas, Mrs. Cecil Davis, Mrs. Theodore Nutter, Mrs. Paul Bingley, Mrs. Henry Moore, Mrs. P. P. Daugherty, Mrs. P. A. Vaughan, Mrs. A. L. Jenkins, Mrs. W. D. Weitzel, Mrs. C. A. Jackson, Mrs. F. H. Purcell and Mrs. Walter Guthrie.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the association.

Announce Troth

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Carter, 711 Smith street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Katherine, to Charles E. Marshall. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Marshall of Detroit. A July 31 wedding is planned.

WITH THE COLLEGIANS

Connie McGuire of Evergreen road was one of two students who received degrees in education for the blind from Michigan State College recently.

Betty Wright, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Wright of Franklin Village, was recently graduated from Western College, Oxford, Ohio.

Marilyn Grigg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Grigg of Franklin Village has just been graduated from Michigan State College. At the end of July, she plans to leave for LaJolla, Calif., where she will study dietetics for one year.

From Western College at Oxford, Ohio comes the news that Betty Jane Wright, 26396 Normandy road, Franklin, recently received her bachelor of arts degree on June 8. She majored in psychology.

One of the students at Connecticut College at New London, Conn. to receive a bachelor of arts degree was Eleanor B. Penfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Penfield of Lake Park drive. She majored in chemistry and was on the dean's list for high scholastic standing. She was also general chairman of the Connecticut Valley Student Science conference last April, tennis manager for her class and program chairman of the mathematics club. She plans to do graduate work in mathematics at the University of Michigan.

Ruth DeConick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward DeConick, 5408 W. Maple, received a B.A. degree from Bowling Green State University at Bowling Green, Ohio on June 11.

From the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, comes the announcement that two Birmingham students will receive A.B. degrees from the school of Liberal arts and sciences this week. They are Susanne A. Burnside, 620 Lakeside avenue and Patricia A. Price, 655 Oakland avenue.

Engaged

Carolae Sproull

At a small cocktail party in their home on Shirley Drive Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Sproull announced the engagement of their daughter, Carolae Elizabeth, to Hubert James "Mike" Quinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert John Quinn of Oak Street.

The announcement came as a surprise to the group of intimate friends who had been invited to the Sproull home for a farewell party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Mosby. The Mosbys, with their family, will drive this week to Wyoming for a month of ranch life.

Miss Sproull attended Baldwin high school and the University of Kansas for two years.

Her fiancé was graduated from Oliver Military Academy and attended Michigan State College where he was affiliated with Psi Upsilon fraternity. During the war he served as an infantry lieutenant in the Pacific theater.

There are no immediate plans for the wedding.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert James Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lawlor, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mosby, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Cudlip, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wellman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bising, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Whiteley, Mr. John Lumbum and Mr. Richard Burns of Cleveland, Ohio.

Franklin Friendly Circle Group Hears Mrs. Roy J. Riddle

The Franklin Community Church Friendly Circle group met yesterday for a dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Duane Lurina in Franklin Village.

Guest speaker for the occasion was Mrs. Roy J. Riddle, vice-president of the Greater Detroit Motion Picture Council. Mrs. Riddle spoke on "Current Motion Pictures and How They Affect Children."

Mrs. W. E. Zierer is the reorganization chairman and Mrs. R. Woodburn is the club's program chairman.

President of the Franklin group Mrs. Charles Brown.

The organization meets every third Wednesday.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Dan VanderBrook and their son, Dan, Jr., formerly of Grand Rapids, they are now living at 1933 Birmingham boulevard.

Anything cuter than a baby?
NORCROSS
 Baby cards are the cutest cards in town

La Belles
 137 WEST MAPLE

Your Dad

JUNE 20th—that will be Father's Day, 1948. And where lives the Dad who will not deeply appreciate his family's remembrance of him on this, his special occasion!

Plan now to make your gift to your Father a grand, truly special gift. Give him something especially masculine—something in fine leather for his personal use or for his desk; an unusual smoking accessory; the kind of glassware he would choose himself—that book he's been wanting to read but which, because he's been so busy working, he hasn't had a chance to get.

Make it in your memory—June 20th: better still, come in now and select his Father's Day gift thoughtfully and leisurely.

La Belles
 137 WEST MAPLE

EARLY TO BED

in a Snuggle Duckey or Snuggle Duckling crib cover of cool white birdseye tailored to fit regulation size crib. Baby will be safe and so comfortable to-night and every night.

SOLD EXCLUSIVELY AT
Little Folks Shop
 141 W. Maple
 MILDRED R. ETLING Open Friday Till 9

Gunmetal Cottons . . . CAREER GIRLS CHOICE

The rich grey of gunmetal is an ideal choice for summer cottons, and Justin McCarty uses it here in a colorful striped cotton by Dan River to make a two-piece peplum dress. Studs fasten the top, and a tucked vestee gives it a nicely tailored look.

Sizes 12 to 16
 Price $16.95

Justin McCarty
D.J. Healy SHOPS
 WABEEK BLDG.

WITH THE COLLEGIANS

Connie McGuire of Evergreen road was one of two students who received degrees in education for the blind from Michigan State College recently.

Betty Wright, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Wright of Franklin Village, was recently graduated from Western College, Oxford, Ohio.

Marilyn Grigg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Grigg of Franklin Village has just been graduated from Michigan State College. At the end of July, she plans to leave for LaJolla, Calif., where she will study dietetics for one year.

From Western College at Oxford, Ohio comes the news that Betty Jane Wright, 26396 Normandy road, Franklin, recently received her bachelor of arts degree on June 8. She majored in psychology.

One of the students at Connecticut College at New London, Conn. to receive a bachelor of arts degree was Eleanor B. Penfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Penfield of Lake Park drive. She majored in chemistry and was on the dean's list for high scholastic standing. She was also general chairman of the Connecticut Valley Student Science conference last April, tennis manager for her class and program chairman of the mathematics club. She plans to do graduate work in mathematics at the University of Michigan.

Ruth DeConick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward DeConick, 5408 W. Maple, received a B.A. degree from Bowling Green State University at Bowling Green, Ohio on June 11.

From the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, comes the announcement that two Birmingham students will receive A.B. degrees from the school of Liberal arts and sciences this week. They are Susanne A. Burnside, 620 Lakeside avenue and Patricia A. Price, 655 Oakland avenue.

Dr. B. D. Campbell OPTOMETRIST
 201 Theatre Building
 PHONE 2344

MATTHEW'S Tailor Shop and Furrier
 244 E. MAPLE
 Just Arrived!
 Summer Material Samples for Ladies and Men
 Best selection since before the war.
 $55 up

Why have a watch that's sick?

Let us make it well for you with our expert repair service. Best in town.

INSPECTION FREE
 Cleaning and repairing. Genuine parts. Best work guaranteed by this store.

BLON OWNERS: See us about getting the amazing new miracle Duraflex! Making for your watch.

The Kincaids
 for JEWELRY
 213 E. Maple

BOOKS ABOUT Your favorite sport

SPORTSMEN are reading more and more about their favored sport. They've discovered how much it adds to the enjoyment of the sport to do so; how additional "know how" improves their own technique; valuable it is to know how sportsmen really "graze" do it! This Spring's lists from all the publishers of sporting books reflect the added interest and enthusiasm good sportsmen the nation over are finding in books on the subject. Incidentally, books for sportsmen are a grand gift idea too! Come, see our special showing of books on:

- GOLF
- FISHING
- RIDING
- HUNTING
- BASEBALL
- ARCHERY
- TENNIS
- SAILING
- SWIMMING
- SKATING
- MOTOR-BOATING
- PHOTOGRAPHY

Books will increase the pleasure of your favorite sport!

La Belles
 137 WEST MAPLE