Elkington-Lawler Vows Read at the Kirk in the Hills

Miss Eloise Joan Lawler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Lawler, 696 Southfield, became the bride of Richard H. Elkington, son of Mr. and Mrs. David C. Elkington of Muskegon, Mich., at a Friday afternoon informal family wedding at Kirk in the Hills.

The bride was dressed in ivory satin with a fitted bodice and long pointed sleeves. Her full skirt fell into a train. A ruffled bertha of net edged the net neck insert. Her fingertip veil, trimmed in lace, was held by a satin crown. She carried a bouquet of glameillas, with satin streamers dotted with gladioli buds on a ribbon. She wore a pin that her grandmother wore at her wedding 55 years ago, and carried a handkerchief that belongs to her great grandmother.
