Bloomfield Open Hunt Show Is Set for June 24-27

Top honors will be competed for by hunters, jumpers, saddle horses, western and walking horses when the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club holds its annual show from June 24-27 at the club on East Long Lake road.

The young people will vie for highest ratings during the morning and afternoon of Thursday, June 24; the senior equestrians will take over afternoon and evening trials on Friday and Saturday. There will be a single afternoon performance on Sunday.
Clara L. Gray is in charge of general arrangements; Koco di Marco is the vice-president; Robert Waugh is serving as treasurer; William McElvett is acting in the capacity of co-chairman for the event and Harry Nichols is in charge of entries.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Smith of Conn. are to be the judges in the hunter and jumper division.
Douglas Davis of Lexington, Ky., will be the judge for the saddle horse division.

Social Events
Many social activities have been scheduled to take place during the week of the show. On Thursday there will be an 8:00 p.m. cocktail buffet party for the exhibitors and members on the club lawn.
Also that night there will be a junior dinner in the clubhouse.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. di Marco will entertain with cocktails and a buffet at their home.
Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs.
Gray will give a cocktail and supper party after the performance at Croybank, their home on Walnut Lake road. A Sunday morning breakfast at the club will round out the social events.

Among the many out-of-town entries just announced are those received from Mr. and Mrs. William E. Munk, Mr. John B. Stock-ley, Mr. Lewis Schwartz and Miss Judy Foreman all of Indianapolis; Mr. Donald Mitchell of Owasso, Mich.; Mr. Edward Forth of Detroit; Mr. Sterling Smith of Beaverton, Ohio, and Mr. A. E.
Rueben of Toledo, Ohio.

Ladies' Luncheon

A ladies' luncheon and card party will be held on Wednesday, June 16 at 12:30 in the Oakland Hills Country Club.

On the arrangements committee are Mrs. Clayton H. Maurice, Esquire, Goldsboro, Mrs. John E. Ecken-rode, Mrs. Fred L. Lawrence and Mrs. A. M. Wibel.

Hartsuff-Jerome Wed at Christ Church Cranbrook

Frances Marion Jerome and John Chadwick Hartsuff exchanged vows in St. Dunstan chapel, Christ Church Cranbrook Friday afternoon. Rev. Arthur L. Farrell officiated.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Lawrence Jerome of Rochester and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hartsuff of Ridgefield, Conn.

For her wedding the bride chose a white satin gown of her own design with a sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves and a redingote of chiffon over the skirt. A satin band encrusted with seed pearls held her fingertip veil in place. She carried a white fayver bouquet and an orchid and stephanotis corsage.

Mrs. Warren C. Stout, a sister of the bride, in a gray chiffron gown, served as matron of honor.

Miss Nancy Kotts Names Attendants

Miss Nancy Pettibone Kotts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Perkins Kotts of Stanley street, has named her attendants for her marriage to Allan Frank Koepp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koepp of East week Miss Gertrude Wenzl of Hanna street entertained at a shower honoring Miss Leaf. The affair was attended by the employees of the Birmingham National Bank where the bride-elect was previously employed.

This evening Mrs. James Herbst of Elwood avenue, Berkeley, will be hostess at another shower.
Among those who will present are Jean Wyckoff, Betty Martin, Elaine
Leaf, Barbara and Nancy Mac-
Queen, Barbara Blauman, Patty
Keller and Mrs. H. T. Leaf, mother of the bride-elect.

On Saturday night, Miss Ann Collins of Gengary Circle will open her home for the spinster dinner. Guests will be Jean Wyckoff, Elaine Leaf, Jody Stierle, Patty Keller, Rachel Herbst, Marjorie Gilman, Nancy and Barbara MacQueen, Ann Woodruff, Martina McKinney, Barbara Blauman, Betty Martin and Barbara Braunle who is from Rochester, N. Y.

Best man will be Lawrence Johnson and William Kridler; John Maynard, Randall Johnson, and Leroy J. Stephens have been named as ushers.

Many parties have already been given honoring the bride-elect by Sidney Van Winkle and Norma Swisher, Arlyn Steinbaugh, Mrs.
Johnson and Mrs. Ralph Williams.
Mrs. Covert Robertson and Mrs.
Joseph Sanderson. Mrs. Homer Alldredge gave a personal shower for Miss Kotts at the Sheraton Hotel.

In the early part of June, Lois Brown and Miss Margaret McDonald are to have a linen shower honoring the bride-elect.

Dorothy Leaf Is Honored at Numerous Parties

Dorothy Leaf of Wing Lake road who will be married to William Wyckoff on June 12, is being feted at numerous prenuptial parties.

Last week Miss Gertrude Wenzl of Hanna street entertained at a shower honoring Miss Leaf. The affair was attended by the employees of the Birmingham Na-
was previously employed.

of Elwood avenue, Berkeley, will
be hostess at another shower.
Among those who will present are
Jean Wyckoff, Betty Martin, Elaine
Leaf, Barbara and Nancy Mac-
Queen, Barbara Blauman, Patty
er of the bride-elect.

Cotton Frolic Set for Saturday Night

This Saturday night, June 5, the Newcomers' Club, one of the youngest community clubs, will hold its first dance at the Community House.

Although the club is composed of those who have moved to the city within the past two years, members are encouraged to bring their friends.

The Cotton Frolic will feature many novelty change-partner dances, a community sing and refreshments. Mrs. Joseph Lacy of Bloomfield Hills is in charge of the food committee.

Bill McManus, assisted by the club president, Chris Hales, will act as master of ceremonies. Don Preston's band will provide the music and play requests. Popular ballroom dancing will be varied with the novelty numbers.

To provide a casual summer note, the ladies are asked to come in cotton frocks and to have their hair comfortably dressed in their favorite sports clothes.

At the Newcomers' Club luncheon meeting last Friday, Mrs. P. G.
Garrison entertained about 75 guests with experiences of her life in South America.
