GIRL SCOUTS

Girls Scouts Reach 36th Birthday
The thirty-sixth anniversary of the founding of the Girl Scouts of the United States of America will be observed Friday, March 12, throughout the country.

In her "Message for 1948" National President Mrs. Harriet R. Ferguson says: "These past war days are filled with world problems and hardships. Millions of people are suffering from lack of food, housing and the aftermath of war. Our hearts go out to them in sympathy but we want to do something for them."

"Girl Scouts have a wonderful opportunity to prove that we are friends to all and sisters to all other Girl Scouts. The theme of our Plan of Work, 'Girl Scouts, United by Ideals', is a challenge to us all to make Girl Scout ideals bigger and better in 1948 than it has ever been before, and if we do our share, many more people in the United States and in other countries will know more about Girl Scouts and the high ideals they try to live up to."

"Let us all learn and try to keep before us Carl Schurz's beautiful words, 'Ideals are like the stars. We can never reach them, but like mariners on the sea, we can set our course by them.'"

Hills Girl Scouts Enjoy Hay Ride

Easter

A Season of Happiness and sorrow . . . a time when one contemplates upon what blessings have come to us in the way of happiness through sorrow. In that spirit has come the art of remembrance for many things; chiefly for thoughtfulness, especially to parents for their long and tiresome vigil in the bringing into girlhood or boyhood those traits that they themselves have . . . and as a reward, both children and grownups pay tribute with a gift, not expensive, but only in memory, may we say, for the gesture that eventually will make them a part of one great universe—people with an understanding.

May we suggest humbly, that we are prepared to serve you in whatever capacity you see fit to use us.

(If your children have a problem in wanting to choose a gift, please be assured that we will help them to the best of our ability.)

Ten Little Servants

Ten little servants, waiting in a line,
Call one to do the wash—and still you have nine!

Nine little servants, working long and late,
Ask one to cook your meals—and still you have eight!

Eight little servants—working like eleven!
Call on one to clean for you, and still you have seven!

Seven little servants—you don't need candlesticks
When this one lights the house for you—and still you have six!

Six little servants, electrically-alive,
This one sews a handy seam—and still you have five!

Five little servants to help with every chore;
One can iron all the shirts—and still you have four!

Four little servants—such activity!
One breathes a little breeze—and still you have three!

Three little servants—if you're feeling blue,
One will entertain you—and still you have two!

Two little servants, whose work is never done!
One keeps the food fresh, and thinks it's rather fun—

One tells the proper time from sun to setting sun.
(Dependable electric service makes these servants run—
And saves you lots of elbow grease. Suppose you had none?)
