Spring, Summer Styles Modeled at Fashion Show

By Virginia Reinhardt
The rustle of gaily colored petticoats and long full skirts set the style at the fashion show last Saturday afternoon in the Community House.

costs were much in evidence. Those wearing the pretty white blouses and full skirts were Sue Hantreiter, Mary Halliday and Peggy McPhail.

Oldtime Vaudeville
Mrs. Bob Pierce, Mrs. George Sterling and Mrs. John Nichols modeled dressy summer outfits. Suits with pencil slim or full flared skirts were worn by Ruth Oldberg, Jo Laucomer, Marion Monroy and Betty Whitelaw.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

Dear Folksies,
Saving their energy for Saturday's game, the kiddies spent Friday night peacefully at various club meetings.

Watching Jack Curley and Don McConkie play ping-pong at C.T.A. meeting were Barb Haglund, Carol Peterson, Nancy Howell, Larry Hotchkiss, Pete Terres and Darrell Kelley.

Boys Attend Fashion Show

Local Boy's Bike Stolen Third Time

There's a boy in Birmingham who is helping the old statement that lightning never strikes twice in the same place. His bicycle has just been stolen for the third time.

pearance, this time from inside the family garage where it was stored. Sammy is 11 years old, and as a member of a school safety patrol, needs his bicycle badly. The matter has again been reported to the police, but he is asking additional help from his neighbors and fellow townsmen. Anyone seeing a red Roadmaster, trimmed in silver, bearing the license "6471" is asked by the Department or take the bike to them. They will turn it over to Sammy at once.
