County Group Names Local Women to May Meeting Committees

Two Birmingham women have been named to committees which will be in charge of the activities of the Achievement Day for Extension Club activities in May. Mrs. Wesley Roberts will serve on the committee on exhibits, while Mrs. J. H. Goodwin is a member of the hospitality committee. The appointments were made when the Oakland County Home Demonstration Extension committee met last week in Pontiac.

Executive committee members are compiling lists of women in their areas who will volunteer to give weekly or bi-monthly lessons for convalescing therapists at the tuberculosis sanatorium. Miss Josephine Hoke, home demonstration agent, said that she feels many of the women in this group are well equipped to aid these patients, and that they can use their special talents in bringing special lessons and interests which are badly needed.

Quarton PTA Summarizes Its Yearly Activities

The Quarton School PTA held its annual meeting in the school gym last week.

The nominating committee of which Mrs. Carl Seiffert is chairman with Mrs. Gordon Baker and Mrs. Ralph Street, submitted the following slate of officers for 1948-49:

Mrs. Lawton Tabor, president; Charles Dylwyg, father vice-president; Miss Cecelia Jenick, teacher vice-president; Mrs. Carl Seiffert, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Le Roy Kiefer, recording secretary; Mrs. Harry Muenchinger, treasurer, and Mrs. Arthur Hudson, historian.

Mrs. Richard K. Burg, president, will preside at a brief summary of the year's activities, and Mrs. John Hammond, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee presented two record players and a radio to the school which were purchased with part of the proceeds from the Twentieth Anniversary Fair.

Mrs. Hammond also gave Mrs. Brooks Marshall, chairman of the Cub Scout and Mrs. R. S. Davis, the Girl Scout head, contributions to the PTA.

The school will vote on an increase in PTA dues April 13 and budging has been set up for the new year.

Mrs. Alice McHugh introduced Miss M. G. Roberts to the school, announced that the program would be an explanation of visual-auditory aids in connection with school work.

Mrs. Florence Remon, art teacher, used slides to demonstrate how children learn from seeing events pictorially. Portions of two films, "Helping Children Learn" and "Foolery on Farm" were shown.

A film on Chile was shown as an aid to the study of the country, life on the seacoast and agriculture on an estate.

Miss Marian Johnston explained how children see musical instruments and the proper way to use them. She used stringed instruments and woodwinds as examples.

Miss Johnston spoke of the musical quiz kid program now underway which is being conducted by the children's music society.

The children must recognize 18 musical works and their composers to win and through the program are acquiring an excellent foundation for musical appreciation.

Following the meeting the faculty served refreshments from a table decorated in green honoring St. Patrick's Day.
