Interstate Prep School Basketball Champions

The Cranbrook School basketball team, victors in the Interstate Preparatory School League are pictured with the William A. Saffert trophy which they have won for the second consecutive year. Squad members are (1 to 10 bottom row) Talcott Jones, Don Meyer, Dave Breck, Ken Wright (captain) Bill Gilbreath, Dave Seeber and Stu McCombs; (1 to 10 top row) Coach B. N. Grba, Bill Broder, Gunther Bae, Bing Murray, Bob Hayman and Norman Berry (manager). Other schools in the League are University School of Cleveland, Shady Side Academy, Pittsburgh, Nichols School, Buffalo, and Western Reserve Academy at Hudson, Ohio. The parent of a Shady Side Academy student is the donor of the trophy which must be won three times to retain permanent possession.

The Cranbrook School winter sport schedule was successfully concluded with 13 out of 16 basketball games won. With weather the most favorable in the school history of the sport, the hockey team in 14 starts. The wrestling team keenly felt the loss of Captain Bruce Smith due to injuries after the successful start of the season.

Letters in basketball were awarded to Capt. Kenneth Wright, David Seeber, Don Meyer, Capt. elect Talcott Jones, Bill Gilbreath, David Breck and Norman Berry, manager. Norman Bowman, Michael Flannery, Willie Gunn, John Kelsey, Robert Leister, John Manley, Peter Moore, Capt. John Riet Sieg, Sieg, Capt. elect Maynard Smith and Eldred Steinmann received "C" for hockey. Wrestling letters went to Michael Carey, Gerald DeLue, Hugh Harness, Helmut Heuser, Olof Karlsson, Bruce Smith and Capt. elect Fred Steinmann.

Farmer 'M' Star Speaks
 At the annual "C" club dinner held in the school dining hall for team members, Paul Thompson, athletic director, introduced Gordon O. Rice, Detroit businessman, treasurer of the Cranbrook School Board of Directors and father of hockey captain John Rice, as toastmaster for this event. He received letters in six sports while in high school and played with University of Michigan football and baseball teams.

Featured speaker was Paul White who starred with the University of Michigan football team two years ago. His topic was the role athletics play in a boy's life. He also answered questions concerning athletic contests and sports personality.

Cranbrook School's three head coaches spoke briefly, after which presented Coach Frederick Dockstader a leather jacket and other items of apparel.

Spring vacation at Cranbrook Young received a fitted traveling trunk from captain-elect Maynard Smith and captain-elect Fred Steinman, of the wrestling team, after way.
