Ever since I can remember I've been dreaming about an enter and better way to wash dishes. And now, General Appliances, 112 S. Woodward have it—in the "Manville Dishmaster".
It's right on your sink, in place of the faucets, and then all you have to do is put in a small amount of washing powder, and you're ready to go. The Dishmaster has a rubber spray-brush, on a flexible line, and you "turn on" the spray by simply pressing a button. By releasing the button you get a clear water spray that rinses your dishes and the job is done! Only $37.50—and it's wonderful.

Peggy Clemo, formerly associated with the interior decorating department of the Ernest Kern Co., Detroit, and William Hitchcock, are now accepting decorating assignments for Quinn's, Inc., Bowers Rd. at Hunter Blvd. If you want your home to be "perfect" you can engage the services of Miss Clemo and Mr. Hitchcock by calling 1665, but they request that all appointments be made a week or ten days in advance. They will execute decorating commissions including draperies, slip covers, special order furniture, lamps, wall paper and carpeting, anywhere in the Birmingham area.

The season for playing marbles, flying kites, and riding bicycles is almost here and Baugh's Bike Shop, 341 S. Woodward, has a perfectly marvelous selection of new bikes. If you can remember the joy of having the clean spring wind blow through your hair, you'll understand why any youngster needs a bike. Baugh's have Columbia, Rolland and Shady bikes, and those famous Thunderbolt tricycles that are guaranteed to last and last. One thing even kids like is a side cart. And this is a good time to get your old bike repaired and in perfect shape for the happy spring days that are ahead.

The Maxwell Shop, 164 W.
Maple, is ready to outfit you from top to toe for the Easter Parade.
Let's start with that new suit.
You'll find your favorite style in the exciting new colors and in a complete range of sizes—9 to 10, 10 to 12, and 12 to 14. Next, a new blouse. Blouse this spring are soft and bewitchingly feminine and you'll have a choice of white, pastels or primary colors.
Of course, your Easter bonnet, gloves, and bag will be selected to complement and enhance your suit—and the Maxwell Shop has a marvelous selection of these accessories.

Like mother, like daughter—the old saying goes, and it can really come true if you outfit your small fry at the Chester Shop, 101 S. Woodward. Just in time for Easter is a collection of suits styled "just like mother's"—with beaky jackets or nipped in waists, and flared ballerina skirts. Any girl 7 to 14 will also appreciate a new spring coat—particularly when she can choose one that is short, or long—or even a cape.
Then there are suits and coat sets for tiny tots from 2 years up that are just darling. And lots of Easter bunnies and fuzzy ducks.

Belgian Youth Is 'Adopted' by Mrs. B. Boulton

Mrs. C. R. Boulton, 132 North Woodward avenue, has received a photo of Guillaume Jeral, 10 year old Belgian boy whom she has adopted through the Foster Parents Plan.

Gillaume had been cared for through another Foster Parent whose circumstances forced her to give up the work, before he "met" Mrs. Boulton. He, his parents and the two other children in the family suffered terribly at the hands of the Germans during the occupation of Belgium.

Their home was destroyed by bombing, and the mother made an invalid for life. For over a year they lived in a cellar, without light or heat, and now have only an improvised shack to call home. The health of all has been damaged and with the father working as a driver and trying to care for his wife and children, their existence is anything but pleasant.

Mrs. Boulton writes to Guillaume every week and has sent him things which are utterly foreign to him: whole warm clothes and the like. She hopes that in some small way she will be able to give him some of the normal childhood which so far has been deprived him.
