Kincaid Jewelers Move to E. Maple

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kincaid, local jewelers, have moved from their temporary quarters on Woodward Avenue to their new and permanent address, 213 East Maple Avenue. They have been in business in Birmingham since December 7, 1945.

Mr. Kincaid began his career in jewelry as a boy, working for a wholesale house. In August, 1942, he enlisted in the Seabees and served in the Aleutians until a back injury returned him to this country for hospitalization. After receiving his discharge in 1945, he and Mrs. Kincaid operated her father's business in Paducah, Ky., until 1946.

Mrs. Kincaid, the former Ruby Wanners, said of herself, "I've been selling jewelry since the days when I had to stand on a box to see over the counter." She grew up in Paducah where Mr. Wanner's business was located, and spent every possible minute in the store.

They have recently taken over the store formerly occupied by McNellis Jewelry, and have completely remodeled the store. Their new and fully equipped watch and jewelry repair shop is now open.

A VOTE FOR

BRUCE G. BOOTH

IS A VOTE FOR GOOD GOVERNMENT

Getting men interested in furs was easy for Natalie Nickerson. In her staid role as a "For Men Only" cocktail party in New York. The party was given by Greater New York Women's Auxiliary of the National Cancer Foundation. Speaking of fashions, Natalie looks mighty choice below that ermine.
