Tin Soldier and Lovely Doll Come Alive to Enchant Youngsters

Lisa, the lovely doll as played by Shirley Hersey, stands gazing at Monty Mac, the heroic little one armed tin soldier played by Mrs. Stanley Saunders in the production of "The Steadfast Tin Soldier" to be presented by the Children's Theater Group of the American Association of University Women at the Birmingham Theatre, Tuesday, March 30. Performances will be held at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m.

The small fry of the Birmingham-Bloomfield area are looking forward to the coming production of "The Steadfast Tin Soldier" to be presented under the auspices of the Children's Theater Group of the American Association of University Women, at the Birmingham Theatre. Performances are to be at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m.

So many adults have expressed a desire to see the play that for the dress rehearsal Monday, March 29, the Children's Theatre group have invited all AAUW members, their friends and any other adults interested in the work of the group, to attend. No children will be admitted to this rehearsal, which takes place at 3:30 at the Birmingham Theatre. This will be entirely invitational. Tickets for the children's performances Tuesday are now on sale at Grinnell's Music store, and will be available at the theatre box office on the day of the play.

For Younger Children
The morning show is planned primarily for children from outlying schools in the area, while the afternoon performance will take care of the youngsters of the Birmingham elementary schools. "The Steadfast Tin Soldier" is planned especially for the younger child. Kindergartners through fourth and fifth graders will be enchanted to see a play in which toys come to life.

The scene takes place in the little boy Peter's room. Peter has grown tired of Garro, his jack-in-the-box; of Lisa the lovely doll, of Pidgeon Toes and Pop-eye, his teddy bears, and even of Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy. It is the eve of his birthday and in the corner stands a mysterious big wooden box sent from Switzerland by an uncle. As the plot unfolds, there is music, dancing, marching of toy soldiers and even the excitement of duelling.

Members of Cast
The cast consists of Peter, played by Mrs. William Kegeles; his mother, Mrs. Hans Schjolin; his nurse, Mrs. John Bilyay, Jr.; Lisa the doll, Miss Shirley Hersey; Garro, the jack-in-the-box, Mrs. William Breech; Pidgeon Toes and Pop-eye, the teddy bears, played by Mrs. George Dix and Mrs. Richard Stewart; Raggedy Ann, Mrs. Lawton Tabor; Raggedy

Andy, Mrs. John Kluber; Duffy, the donkey, Mrs. Stanley Hood; Monty Mac, the steadfast tin soldier, Mrs. Stanley Saunders; the captain of the soldiers, Mrs. Richard Hatch; the duelling tin soldier, Mrs. W. G. Patton.

Tin soldiers will be played by Mrs. Alec Parzine, Mrs. R. S. Clark, Mrs. M. B. Whittlesey, Miss Louise Hersey, Mrs. E. W. Deer, Mrs. T. Hollister Mahley, Mrs. Calvin Derrison, Mrs. F. G. Garrison, Mrs. A. H. Fries.

The play is being directed by Mrs. Winston Kellogg, assisted by Mrs. Anthony Daley. Prompter will be Mrs. J. K. Riley. Music, Mrs. Orren Mohler. Dance routines planned by Miss Shirley Hersey. Scenery, Mrs. Stanley Hood; Properties, Mrs. James Abbott; Tickets, Mrs. Richard Brown. The "Raggedies" costumes are by Mrs. John Holden, Mrs. J. E. Williams and Mrs. Frank D. Webb.

Production manager for the play is Mrs. Gilbert Gove.

Guild to Present 'The Corn Is Green'

St. Dunstan's Guild will present "The Corn Is Green" on two week-end nights, April 9, 10, 16, 17, in the Cranbrook Pavilion on Lone Pine road.

Nella Beveridge is production chairman and Fritz C. Hyde, Jr., is directing. Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Hintermeister are designing the sets and Mrs. Jones B. Shannon is in charge of casting.

Mrs. Hugh Hitchcock is in charge of costumes. Others at work on the production include Mrs. Frederick Booth, properties; Mrs. Donald Sanderson, make-up; Mrs. Muir Lind, tickets; Winston Kellogg will handle lights; Esther McCreary will hold lines; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin will do the lobby decoration; and Mrs. Frederic C. Pew, publicity.
