DAR Gives Good Citizenship Award to Phyllis Morse

Pietly Hill Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, announce the presentation of this year's "Good Citizenship Award" to Phyllis Morse, daughter of Phyllis Morse and Mrs. J. Jennings Morse of Franklin Road.

Mrs. Morse has been selected by her classmates and the faculty of Baldwin High School as the girl who meets the DAR Good Citizenship requirements of leadership, patriotism, service and dependability. A few of her activities include five semesters on Student Congress, president of homeroom, twice president of school club, class secretary of Congress, chairman service committee and member of the Assembly Club.

There are three other good citizenship Pilgrims, Joyce Maierle from Clawson, Public School, No. 10, and Nancy Dixon from Roosevelt High School, Kego Harbor. At the state conference in Detroit March 17-18-19 one Good Citizen will be chosen from all the candidates to go to Washington, D. C., as a guest of the DAR.

Pietly Hill Chapter will entertain the Good Citizens and their mothers at the chapter meeting Tuesday, March 9, in the Library. Mrs. Thomas Navin, regent, will preside and Mrs. C. W. Wacker, State Director will speak on "The History of the Romance of the Daughters of the Revolution".

Assisting the hostesses will be Mrs. Joseph Bowen, Mrs. William Graham, Mrs. William Lambert, Mrs. Herbert Green, Miss Helen James, Mrs. Clifford McArthur and Mrs. R. C. Sackett.

Mrs. Earl Potter Chosen to Head Church Women

The following women will act as chairmen of the eight divisions: Mrs. Charles Randall, Mrs. B. R. Winborn, and Mrs. Ralph Main. Mrs. Potter has named the following as standing committee chairmen: Mrs. H. G. Wood, sewing; Mrs. Clifford Dunn, program; Mrs. C. M. Knight, devotion; Mrs. George G. Steelman, house; Mrs. C. V. Crockett, membership; Mrs. B. Dow Ellwood, publicity; Mrs. H. D. Harris, flowers; Mrs. Floyd Franklin, foyer, and Mrs. I. W. Robertson, budget.

GIRL SCOUTS

Calendar for March
Mar. 1-31: Red Cross Month
In some communities Emergency Squads of Girl Scouts will assist with the drive.
Mar. 12: Girl Scout 16th Birthday
How about planning a good Flag Ceremony at your troop meeting for this week?
Mar. 17: Camp Fire Girls' Birthday
The Girl Scout magazine, "The Leader" reports a certain troop making stenciled cards with the Camp Fire Girl and Girl Scout insignia to send a neighboring Camp Fire group for its birthday. Nice idea.

Mar. 20: First day of Spring
Comes on a Saturday this year. How about a troop hike? You'll probably sink knee-deep in mud looking for peep frogs, but who cares?
Mar. 21-27: National Wildlife Restoration Week
This week is sponsored by the National Wildlife Federation. This is a good time for your troop to study and talk over the new Conservation badge. The Conservation Pledge gives a bit of a scope of this subject: "I give my pledge as an American to save and faithfully to defend from waste the natural resources of my country—its soil and minerals, its forests, waters, and wildlife."
Mar. 28: Good Friday
Mar. 28: Easter

Betty Sprague Weds Royal Oak Man at Quiet Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Sprague of Big Beaver road announce the marriage of their daughter, Betty Jane, to George Gordon Randall, son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Randall of Royal Oak.

The wedding took place Saturday, Feb. 28, at Emmanuel Evangelical Reformed Lutheran church. The Rev. T. A. Goebel officiated. Only immediate families were present at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was attended by her sister, Jean May Sprague, and Robert W. Randall acted as his brother's best man.

Following a honeymoon in Northern Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Randall will reside in Royal Oak. Mrs. Randall is a graduate of Baldwin High School and Mr. Randall was graduated from Royal Oak High School. He served for three years in the Pacific.

Kingswood Juniors Begin Rehearsals for 'Stardust'

The junior class of Kingswood School Cranbrook will present "Stardust" in the school auditorium Friday and Saturday, March 12 and 13.

The three-act comedy was made famous by Julie Haydon. Woven around the lives of a group of students attending an "arty" dramatic school, it builds itself into a series of hilarious situations with the arrival of a successful actress and a Hollywood producer.

Feminine Leads
Feminine leads are taken by Nancy Shore, Anne Wilson and Louise Lindel. Others in the cast include Mary Ann Milbrand, Valerie Kallen, Joyce Woolfenden, Arlene Howard, Alice Rothman, Laura Donovan, Norma Jean Waterbury and Jean Nummely.

Cranbrook boys who will take part are Derek Orth, Dan Taylor, Dick Wilson, Don Jones, Marvin Tompkins and James Patterson.

Business managers are Nancy Hogan and Alice Spero. Delayne DeYoung, Marye Koster and Barbara Watkins have charge of the stage, while Amy Lou Meginnity, Mary Booth, Connie Clark and Janet Newman are handling properties. Sue Kennedy has charge of lighting arrangements.

The play is under the direction of Mrs. M. W. Cochran.

WITH THE COLLEGIANS

"Kit" Scheifele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Webster Scheifele of Linden road, a freshman at the University of Arizona, was pledged Feb. 8 to Alpha Chi Omega.

Miss Dorothy Jean Filkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Filkins of Lakeside drive, a freshman at Butler University, plans to major in art.

Miss Prudence Saunders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Woodruff of Furlan road, a sophomore at Mount Holyoke, was one of the research committee for the International Relations Club intercollegiate conference held the weekend of Feb. 27 at Mt. Holyoke. Representatives of 17 eastern colleges met to discuss current problems of the middle East including Big Power oil interests and the Arab-Jewish dispute.

In recognition of the able performance of his duties, J. H. Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hoyt Gilbert of Mohegan street, has been promoted to the rank of brevet first lieutenant and personnel officer in the Purdue military band, it has been announced by Professor P. M. Enrick, director of the organization. Gilbert is now in his fifth semester in the school of Mechanical Engineering in the University. Several public appearances of the band are planned during the coming year.

J. O. Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Schmidt of Northlawn drive, who is attending the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Detroit, has been placed on the honor roll of the college in recognition of his work during the last semester.

Larry Pomeroy, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Pomeroy of Lakeside drive and a student at Miami University, Oxford, O., has been pledged to Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Miss Beth Schooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas Schooley, 1020 Rivenock, a senior at Albion college, will be heard in a recital Sunday, March 7, at 3 P.M. in the Albion college chapel. Her program will include five groups of songs by Handel, Schubert, Schumann, Faure, Bizet and others.

A music major and a member of the soprano section of the Albion college capella choir, Miss Schooley is well known for her solo work. Her accompanist will be Miss Dolores E. Oates, a freshman from Trenton, Michigan.

Betrothal of Joan Stone Is Made Known

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Stone of West Maple road announce the engagement of their daughter, Joan Hulse Stone, to John McJannet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Tillotson of Bloomfield Hills.

John is a student in the school of engineering at the University of Michigan and is a member of Theta Xi fraternity.
