

Meet Berkley in First Game of District Tourney

By Jim McCall
Maple eagles meet the Blue Boys of Berkley tonight in Ferndale gym at 8:30 for the first Class B game of this district in the state-wide tournament.
Berkley has won seven and lost six this season. The team had three lettermen back from last year and the whole squad except two sophomores will graduate in June.
Clawson, the other team in the district, drew a bye and will meet the winner of Thursday's encounter Saturday night at 9:00 in Ferndale gym.

Clawson's Record.
Ten wins and six defeats are Clawson's final record. Clawson had five lettermen from last year and the captain is Tom Hunter.
Officials for this week's encounters are A. T. Skivers, Roy Grubbs, Walter F. Collins and Sam Madden.
Tickets are 50 cents for students, 65 cents for adults. The box office opens at 6:15 Thursday and 5:30 Saturday.
Class C and D district tournaments will be played this week at Ferndale.
Last year Birmingham defeated Berkley, 50-37, and went on to the state quarter-finals only to be beaten by St. Theresa, 31-30.

WHAT'S NEW DEPT.—No doubt you've been watching that new building going up—the one with the white fence on the East side of Woodward, just north of the 13-Mile Rd. It's the new home of Joseph A. Theisen, Flowers, at 3326 N. Woodward, Royal Oak. Mr. Theisen will handle a complete line of choice cut flowers and flowering plants that will brighten your home right now, and after the snow goes, he will have a fine stock of evergreens and shrubs. Theisen's Flowers is such a convenient place to stop on your way home so watch for the sign.

If you haven't already taken advantage of the clearance going on now at Marguery, Inc., 250 N. Woodward, don't delay any longer. They aren't actually giving away dresses, but the sale amounts to almost the same thing. Imagine dresses that were $49.95 to $79.95 now going at $10 to $20. Why? Because the shop simply must make room for the new spring merchandise that is coming in every day now. There are robes, coats, formal and skirts included in this clearance and plenty of those hard-to-find larger sizes. And you know that clothes from Marguery are good.

Better make a note right now to order your special ice cream for St. Patrick's Day and Easter from Mint's Ice Cream, 1360 S. Woodward—telephone 2588. For St. Patrick's Day Mint's will have shamrock center brick ice cream and special molds. For Easter there will be lilies, bunnies, chicks and Easter eggs. And one of these days you just must try Mint's new ice cream roll that it made with macaroni crust—it makes a simply perfect dessert for a company dinner. And just to remind you—the food at Mint's is always delicious.

I don't have to consult the weather man to be sure it's going to rain this spring—and rain plenty. So be prepared with a new raincoat from Mortimer's, 136 N. Woodward. I'd suggest a shower proof garment for you men who commute to town—they are always in good taste, whether it rains or not. Men who work outside, and young men going to school will need a good sturdy slicker, and Mortimer's have them, of course. As a matter of fact, no matter what price, or type raincoat you need, you'll find exactly what you want at Mortimer's.

It's going to be a "suit" spring and such a diversity of styles and colors, I've never seen. You'll find just the style that is most becoming to you at Mulholland's, 233 N. Woodward. There are shorter jackets with nipped-in waists and full skirts, the always wearable long line suits, and boxy jackets with pencil slim skirts. Gabardines and flannels come in practically every color imaginable from soft pastels to the high shades that are so good this spring. Mulholland's have taffeta petticoats to wear with your suit too, in plaids and plain colors.

Several of my friends around town tell me they have gotten in the habit of stopping in at Mayans, Woodward at Oak for dinner once or twice each week and they find it is an agreeable experience. The atmosphere is so relaxing and the food so delicious, going out to dinner is so simple when you do it at Mayans—but be sure to make reservations well in advance by calling 4910. Your guests will agree that Mayans is the perfect place to entertain.

Local Clubs Victors in Inter-Branch Play

Birmingham YMCA's Phoenix and Junior Hi-Y Clubs emerged victorious over Hannan YMCA/Royal Oak clubs, respectively, in basketball games this past week conducted as recreation along with joint meetings.

Roge Reynolds scored 35 points in leading the Omicron Alpha chapter to a 24-23 victory over Delta Alpha of Hannan on their floor. Jack Barton's 18 markers equaled the Royal Oak total as the food so delicious. Jr. Hi-Y clubs romped over their opponents by a 46-18 score. Both games were played away from Birmingham.
