New Drama Group of AAUW to Present Play for Members

The new drama study group of the American Association of University Women will present a short one-act play, "Nothing Ever Happens Here" at the dinner meeting of the Birmingham Branch of the AAUW Wednesday, March 10, at 1 p.m. in the Community House.

Mrs. Charles Bradley who was a Theatre Major at Smith College and did radio work after graduation, will direct the play, assisted by Mrs. William Brown, who studied at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York.

The stage is set in the ladies lounge of a country club.

The cast made up of local housewives who have been studying new plays includes Mrs. William Milligan, as Mrs. Appleby; Mrs. A. S. Thornbury, as Ethel; Mrs. William Breech, as Mrs. Warren; Mrs. Lawton Tabor, as Grace; Mrs. C. W. Blumman, as Helen; Mrs. A. L. McNaughton, as Jean O'Malley; Mrs. A. T. Daley, as Mrs. Randall and Mrs. W. E. Kegel, as Mrs. Neilson.

Mrs. C. D. Hawley is in charge of properties, assisted by Mrs. Robert Garrison.

The play was adapted by Carl Womberger of Cranbrook for the summer theatre.

Mrs. John A. Gilray, Jr., is in charge of dessert arrangements assisted by Mrs. John M. Allman. Hostesses are Mrs. Robert Yingling and Mrs. H. D. McLeod.

Invitations to the meeting have been sent to the State President of AAUW and the Presidents of the Oakland County, Grosse Pointe, Detroit and Pontiac Branches.

Continuing the new system of reservations, members are asked to call before Monday noon, March 8 (A-E) Mrs. John M. Allman; (F-J) Mrs. John Gilray, Jr.; (K-O) Mrs. E. J. Barney; (P-T) Mrs. Thomas Stelberg, and (U-Z) Mrs. Harry W. Muehlinger.

A board meeting at 10 a.m. will precede the meeting.

Cast of Village Players Honored After Performance

A performance by the Village Players is always the incentive for entertaining following the presentations.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell T. Cosello entertained with a cocktail party and buffet supper for the casts (and their families) of "Anna Christie" and "The Women" at their home on Pine Lake drive Sunday afternoon, Feb. 28.

Dr. and Mrs. William O. Merrill of Willow-O-Way, Long Lake road, have issued invitations for a Sunday night supper for all the casts of the Players and their families at the Merrill home Sunday, March 14.

The Merrills' son, William Way Merrill of the Detroit Stage, Inc., will give a talk on the theatre. Young Mr. Merrill will open a summer theatre later on in the apple barn of his parents' estate. Following the performances Saturday evening, Feb. 28, there was "the afterglow", a traditional get-together of the cast after a closed performance.

The Wedding Invitation

The Wedding Invitation: Consider it well, in order that it will possess the beauty and correctness such a significant occasion demands.

At LaBelles, the benefit of expert counsel accompanies the taking of your order for Wedding Invitations. Every detail receives careful, experienced attention.

Such important matters as the correct form of the invitation, the size and style and shade of paper, the engraving style and its size—these are some of the things which must be right and which must blend together so that the final result is one of characterful beauty befitting the coming occasion. And always remember that there is no substitute for genuine engraving!
