Hazlett-Vardon Vows Spoken at Redeemer Lutheran Church

White gladioli, carnations, tapers and palms decorated the Redeemer Lutheran Church when Joyce Marie Vardon exchanged marriage vows with Douglas Edward Hazlett on May 8 at a 7:30 evening ceremony.

The Rev. Theodore Wugzger, Jr., officiated at the double ring service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Vardon, 807 Pleasant avenue, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Hazlett, 24555 Ross, Inkster, Mich.

Miss Vardon wore a gown of white net trimmed with hand embroidery work which was sent by her brother from Italy, a double skirt with dropped waist, padded hips and a short train. Her fingertip veil hung from a hairpiece and embroidered net.

She carried a white orchid held to a prayer book with streamers, and wore a string of pearls about her neck.

Mrs. Doris Dinkel of Detroit, wearing princess styled pink net, served as matron of honor. Her bouquet was made up of violets and pink roses.

The best man was Harvey Brews of Detroit, and actings as ushers were Robert Dinkel of Detroit and Harold Reiber of Warren, Mich.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Vardon chose a dove grey crepe street length dress, grey gloves, grey hat trimmed with white flowers and a green ribbon, and wore green spray orchids.

Mrs. Hazlett selected a navy blue dress with a white hat and her flowers were white spray orchids.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Community House.

Mrs. Douglas Hazlett blue dress with a white hat and her flowers were white spray orchids.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Community House.

For her going away outfit, the bride wore a dressmaker tweed suit in soft tones of beige and sandalwood, brown accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The young couple will honeymoon in the Smoky Mountains.

McMechan, Mrs. Otto Milbrand, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. Merrill G. Grier, Mrs. Henry F. Moore, Mrs. Raymond W. Morgan, Mrs. James F. Murphy and Mrs. Carl Neppner.

Mrs. Lewis C. Dibble, president, called the annual meeting to order.

Mrs. C. V. Crockett, co-chairman in charge of the Birmingham Garden Week which began May 10, presented to the Baldwin Public Library on behalf of the Garden Club, the following bouquet: a gift of Mrs. Lewis Dibble; American Garden Book, by Louise Harriet Denys; The Woman's Home Companion Garden Book, given by the branch in memory of Mrs. Francis King.

Miss Lloyd, as librarian, accepted the books.

Annual reports by officers and committee chairmen were read, accepted and placed on file.

Pastor Contest Winners

Mrs. Henry W. Thiede, education chairman, then introduced the winners of the Garden Week poster contest in the Birmingham schools.

Pat Ackerman, first grade, Jean Duncan, fourth grade, and Ann McDonald, sixth grade were the winners from Adams school.

At Holy Name, Gail Beard, third grade, Mary Zins, fourth grade, and Betty Rossman, eighth grade, won.

First grader Sandra Mavis, fourth grader Chuckie Arnold, and sixth grader Patty Hamnell were the winners from Quorton school.

Each youngster received a flowering crabapple tree as a prize and their posters are being displayed in local shops during Garden Week.

Officers Elected

In the absence of Mrs. F. H. McKinney, president of the report of the nominating committee. Other members of the committee were Mrs. Durwood Chandler, Mrs. G. Wood and Mrs. Dale Miller. The slate was unanimously accepted.

The new officers are president, Mrs. William McCallum; first vice-president, Mrs. Alvin H. Knorr; second vice-president, Mrs. Frank Webb; treasurer, Mrs. Raymond Smith; recording secretary, Mrs. Robert Watt; secretary, Mrs. L. E. Dick.

Mrs. Dibble, the retiring president, gave a brief talk summarizing the accomplishments of the club in the past year and a half, and then presented the new president, Mrs. McCallum.

The meeting was then adjourned and the members and their guests went on to Baldwin Library where the spring flower arrangements made by various members of the club were displayed, along with a table of new garden books.
