Brief Enough!

As far as Esther Williams is concerned, scanty swim suits have got to go. The shapely swimming actress says they're immodest and adds that she has yet to find a man—including the so-called wily's—who thinks they're good to look at. Esther likes tailored swim suits like this one.

Barnum Class Plans Graduation Affairs

Graduation plans for the ninth grade of Barnum Junior High School are well under way according to an announcement made last week.

Arthur Fairbanks, president of the class, will be assisted by six committee chairmen in the final arrangements. Students of the class were allowed to select the committee on which they preferred to work, with each group naming its own chairman.

Bill Aikens was named chairman of the final 9A promotion; Paul Trichel of the grade party which was held May 9; Joyce Thomas, class gift; Sue Mason, class gift; Ann Morrow, class prophecy; and Lester Colbert, chairman of the final school party which the class will sponsor.

Greenfield Improvement Association Holds Annual Meeting, Elects Officers

The annual spring meeting of the Beverly Hills, Greenfield Improvement Association, was held recently at the Birmingham Community House when over 100 residents of Beverly Hills Subdivision 1, 3 and 5 were present for a banquet and an evening of fun.

H. G. Bovie, of Auburn drive, director and chairman of the entertainment committee, conducted the short business meeting which featured a report of the Association's activities by retiring president Carl T. Armbrust.

Dudley T. Frame, Southfield township supervisor, was the guest of the evening. He gave a short talk on township activities and future plans. Robert McKee of Beechwood road, retiring vice-president, announced the choices of the nominating committee for three vacancies on the board of directors.

W. H. White of Auburn Drive was elected director to represent subdivision No. 1. Claude E. Sharpe of Amhurst road was elected to represent Subdivision No. 3. Claude E. Whipple of Beechwood road was elected to represent subdivision No. 5.

Get Acquainted Party

After the business meeting, the evening was turned over to Whipple who conducted the evening's entertainment. Wm. Spence and his group of entertainers from the Birmingham Lions Club put on their locally famous act of mimicking well known radio singing stars. Get acquainted games that did a thorough job of acquainting everyone in attendance, were played.

The entertainment committee was under the chairmanship of H. C. Bowling who was assisted by Mrs. C. T. Armbrust of Verona Circle. Mrs. Robt. McKee of Beechwood road, Mrs. James J. Kelly of Auburn drive, Mrs. C. M. Greenlee of Auburn drive, Mrs. Dan A. Sprague of Amhurst road, Mrs. Urban Woodhouse of Amhurst road and Mrs. Cassie Richards of Sheridan drive.

New directors met last week with those still in office and elected officers to head the Association for the new term.

The new officers are president, H. W. Collins, 22364 Arlington; vice-president, H. G. Bovie, 32285 Auburn drive; secretary, Claude E. Whipple, 17331 Beechwood road; treasurer, W. N. Leach, 32435 Bath.
