Around The Cracker Barrel-- Why A Gift On Mother's Day?

Perhaps you are a bit irked about this Mother's Day business, feeling that it was either started by retailers as a device to increase sales...

Let's examine that feeling, and see what there is to it. I don't know just how Mother's Day did originate. Perhaps it was merchandising as a marketing device...

Regardless of how the whole thing started, or what it may have become, it is right that we should set a day apart to honor mothers.

Just what has your Mother done for you? What has your children's Mother done for them? There's no use trying to catalogue their acts of devotion...

Who is more deserving of such a gift than Mother? So let's celebrate Mother's Day next Sunday in a different sort of way...

Who is more deserving of such a gift than Mother? So let's celebrate Mother's Day next Sunday in a different sort of way. Let's do it reverently and lovingly...

And if we give a gift let it be something Mother has wanted so long, but felt she couldn't afford. Let's find the gift she really wants...

Spring's rayon Jersey dresses will be seen not only in plain colors and stripes, but in prints and checks. This cool, easy-to-pack and easy-to-press fabric is pictured today in one of many New York street dresses attractively but inexpensively styled for wear on into the warmest days of Summer.

The dress is fashioned all of a piece, with its flattering poplin banded in black crepe matching the V-color of the bodice and sleeve cuffs. Notice that the skirt, though rather slim in effect, is not in the least skimpy--an important feature of fashions throughout the new collections of New York designers.

The back of the waistline is finished with a bustle bow. Other highly satisfactory fabrics seen in popular-gilded town dresses are rayon shantung, striped and polka-dotted crepes and dark sheers, with such features in their favor as neat buttons, self-fabric trims and careful finishing.
