

Techniques of Story Telling Is Object of New Organization

Members of the Birmingham chapter of the National Story Tellers' League will meet on Thursday, Nov. 18, in the Baldwin Public Library at 9:00 to discuss plans for the coming year. Local officers will be elected and a tentative schedule of activities will be arranged.

The Story Tellers' League has been organized for the purpose of training religious teachers, Boy Scout and Girl Scout leaders, and interested parents in the techniques of story telling. Experienced members will demonstrate these devices and there will be ample opportunity for all members to develop their skill through practice.

Annual Doll Tea Friday, Nov. 12

Dolls, which are made entirely of plastic and can be dressed either as a boy or girl, whichever the youngsters prefer at the moment, will be featured in the 19th annual Doll Tea sponsored by St. Ann's Guild of St. James Episcopal Church on Nov. 12 from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. in the Community House. Tea will be served in the lounge throughout the sale. As a boy, the doll, which is hand dressed, will have a wardrobe consisting of jersey knee length trousers, blouses, caps with visors and tiny silk neckties. As a girl, the doll can be dressed in pleated skirts, blouses and petticoats.

There will also be twin dolls and a young lady doll with the latest up-sweep hair-do, a ballet dress of blue maline and tulle and an ample wardrobe which includes a cocktail dress, a white fur evening stole and a suit. Also being sold at this tea with which everyone is invited are quilted slippers, Christmas bells and stockings, mittens, argyle socks, table mats and napkins, guest towels and bed jackets. Articles have been made by members of the guild.

Following a three-weeks' visit in North Carolina where she visited her son at Duke University and her mother, Mrs. Marie Collins in Henderson, Mrs. LEE DURHAM returned to her Westchester road home.

Mildred Weldon Is Married to William Bridge

Before a flower banked altar, Miss Mildred Weldon became the bride of William T. Bridge in morning ceremony at Holy Name Church. The couple, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Weldon of Humphrey avenue and the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bridge of Oak Park, repeated their vows before the Rev. Emmeric, an uncle of the bridegroom in a double ring ceremony.

Board Members and Room Mothers of Holy Name PTA Meet

The executive board and room mothers of the Holy Name School PTA met last Tuesday afternoon in the Alumni House. Plans were made for a Christmas bazaar on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 4 and 5, to be held in the school auditorium. Proceeds of the sale will go to lower the purchase of a sound projector and screen for the school.

Each room, under the direction of the room mothers, is to sponsor a booth. Articles to be featured are toys, food, aprons, dolls and doll clothes, jewelry, handkerchiefs and Girl Scout handicraft.

All the merchandise will be new and a novelty Christmas tree and parcel post booth are special attractions planned.
